

Sedalian Dies After Wreck

Harvey White Fatally Hurt When Car, Truck Collide

Harvey Claude White, 51, of 513 South Engineer, died at 12:15 p.m. Friday of injuries received in a head-on collision between his automobile and a large tractor-trailer unit of the Manor Baking Co. at Broadway and New York about 11:58 p.m. Thursday.

White was driving a 1950 Studebaker sedan and was alone when the accident occurred.

He suffered multiple rib fractures on the left side when that side of the chest was crushed, a cut of the right eyebrow, two puncture wounds on the left side of his neck, and multiple cuts and scrapes about the face and body. He was in severe shock.

He was taken to Woodland Hospital in the Ewing ambulance, where Dr. J. W. Maunders rendered emergency treatment.

This is the first traffic death recorded in Sedalia in more than five years. The last traffic death was recorded on Feb. 17, 1954.

The 1957 Ford tilt cab tractor was driven by Homer Garland Quinn, 42, of Route 1, Gashland, Mo., and was heading east en route on his bread route. Quinn was not injured.

Quinn told the police that just before the accident, he had been traveling about 30 miles an hour, but believed he had come to a stop just before the car crashed into him.

"I had set the brakes when I saw he wasn't going to miss me," Quinn said.

A locked clock - speedograph which was opened by the company mechanic showed Quinn had been traveling just 30 miles an hour before the accident.

He said the White car, after he went past a car ahead of him, which was driven by a lady, kept coming straight and never wavered when the other car swerved out of the way.

"I thought for sure he was going to miss me," Quinn said.

Airman Hurt Friday In Car Accident

One person was severely injured in a one-car accident on Highway 50 on the hill east of the Muddy Creek flats about 1:05 a.m. Friday. The car, a 1956 Chevrolet station wagon, was demolished.

A-1c Ralph Ray Gragory, 25, of the 340th Supply Squadron, driver of the car, was taken to the Whiteman AFB hospital in the McLaughlin ambulance. He suffered a fracture of the right upper leg. X-rays were taken to ascertain that he had no other serious injuries.

Gragory was headed east on Highway 50 and left the road on the south side of the pavement, where the three foot, 10-inch deep ditch had been cut for the widening of the highway, as he was coming up the hill. The car went across the ditch and traveled nearly 100 yards up along the shoulder and embankment. It struck and snapped in two a telephone pole with the right front part of the car.

The front of the car on the right side was driven back, and the right side sideswiped the pole and did considerable damage to the right rear end. The steering wheel was damaged, the gear shift lever on the steering post was broken off and the air conditioning unit on the right front part of the car was driven back.

State Troopers Richard Joos and Robert E. Stockell, of the Highway Patrol, investigated the accident.

Bacon's Service Station wrecker towed the vehicle back to Sedalia.

Optimist Club Plans Cycle Riding Contest

The Sedalia Optimist Club clinches the bicycle safety week campaign with a bicycle riding rodeo at Liberty Park Saturday. The meet will be held, beginning at 1:30 p.m. just south of the swimming pool.

The event will be conducted by Chief of Police Ralph Hamlin, assisted by the explorer scout post and members of the Optimist Club. Ten prizes will be given to the best riders. All children with bicycles may enter. Both boys and girls will have equal opportunities to win.

Second Arms Cache Found In Panama

Found Near Beach Where Rebel Band Landed Last Week

PANAMA (AP) — National Guardsmen today reported finding a second cache of arms on the beach where Roberto Arias and a rebel band landed six days ago.

Arias, fugitive husband of ballerina Dame Margot Fonteyn, was still eluding patrols searching the coast and hills around Santa Clara, 75 miles west of the capital.

The rebels were believed well armed. Several empty boxes which officials said presumably contained rifles were found.

The latest arms cache included 24 pistols, 3 revolvers, 5 loaded cartridge belts and 1,000 rounds of ammunition. A similar cache was found Wednesday.

A government prosecutor said new evidence showed that Dame Margot was aware of her 41-year-old husband's plot to overthrow President Ernesto de la Guardia.

The famed British dancer was expelled from Panama Wednesday after questioning. She professed ignorance of any revolutionary activities. She flew to New York and on to London Thursday, still refusing to talk about the revolt.

Dist. Atty. Francisco Alvarado told newsmen he would not have let the dancer go had he then had letters found in a beach cottage near Santa Clara Wednesday.

Alvarado said the letters — addressed to the dancer and her husband — were written by Judy Thasham, a British friend living in New York. The letter to Dame Margot said "the plot thickens very much" and referred to "strange calls from Alastair to me." Authorities identified Alastair as a friend of Arias who visited Panama recently.

Officials said a memo found in the cottage showed Arias had drawn more than a half million dollars in the last 18 months from American movie star John Wayne.

Wayne told newsmen in California he was a long-time friend of Arias and that they were associated in a shrimp company along with other stockholders. He expressed surprise that Arias could be mixed up in any revolutionary activities.

House-to-House Drive Brings Over $3,800

The recent house-to-house campaign by the Pettis County Crusade of the American Cancer Society broke all records for contributions, topping last year's total by $500. The amount collected this year was more than $3,800.

Still to be heard from are the county, business, industry, memorial and special gifts divisions, and their reports are not expected to be completely tallied until the end of this month. Last year the grand total was $6,000, and more than that is considered likely this year.

In charge of the house-to-house drive was Mrs. E. L. McClung.

Opens Day's Trading

Castro Visits New York's Coffee and Sugar Exchange

NEW YORK (AP) — Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro, campaigning for increased United States imports of Cuban sugar, visited the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange in the financial district today.

He opened the day's trading by making an appearance on a speaker's platform at 10 a.m. while several hundred traders and bystanders clustered around him.

He said most Cuban sugar was sold through the exchange and pledged that income from the sugar would go toward things that would be useful for Cuba.

Charles S. Lowry, exchange president, gave him a gavel to open the session.

Castro spoke briefly. A member of his party, Dr. Rulo Lopez Fresquet, minister of the treasury, then told the traders that Castro had "advised me not to talk too much about sugar." He said the traders were well aware of its importance.

"We can say we are interested

The Reason

Today's weather, you can tell your friends, is the kind that if it had occurred earlier would have permitted you to do a better job of observing Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up Week.

Partly cloudy with scattered showers tonight and Saturday; cooler Saturday; low tonight 50; high Saturday 66.

The temperature at 7 a.m. was 56 and 80 at 1 p.m. Low Thursday night 53.

The temperature one year ago today, high 85, low 41 with .55 inch of moisture; two years ago, high 81, low 60; and three years ago, high 56, low 28, with .02 inch of moisture.

in having a higher price for our sugar," the treasury minister said. There was applause.

May sugar futures, which closed Thursday at 288 to 289, were quoted at 290 when the market opened today, or $2.90 per 100 pounds.

Police made a thorough search of the 12-story exchange building during the night after a watchman reported he had seen two men acting suspiciously in a second-floor hallway. He said he chased the men and that they left the building by way of a fire stairway.

Members of the police bomb and emergency squads found nothing in the search.

The biggest security guard ever given a visitor to New York has been assigned to Castro because of a reported plot to assassinate him. Police were told of a report that hired gunmen were on their way here in two cars. The entire force was put on a special alert.

Police said the supreme test of the security forces will come tonight when Castro addresses a rally on the Mall in Central Park, where the wooded and rolling terrain will increase the difficulties of the guards.

At Castro's hotel, uniformed policemen and detectives stood guard in corridors, at elevators and in the lobby throughout the night.

Stud Ram Show, Sale Planned For Mid-June

The Midwest Stud Ram Show and Sale will be held in Sedalia at the Missouri State fair grounds on June 15 and 16, according to an announcement made today by Cliff Barr, director of the agriculture division of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce which is assisting with the event.

Approximately 180 head will be exhibited with consignments from the states of Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa and Missouri. Five breeds, Hampshire, Corriedale, Suffolk, Shropshire and Montadale will be shown.

A barbecue will be held the evening of June 15 following the completion of the show.

Plaques will be presented to the owners of the champion ram in each breed by the agriculture division of the Chamber of Commerce.

Approximately 200 people from the Midwestern states are expected to attend the sale on June 16.

Both ewes and rams will be sold during the sale.

If you fail to receive your Democrat, please call TA 6-1000 for special delivery before 6:30 p.m.

Dillon May Be Named As Herter Aide

WASHINGTON (AP) — Under Secretary of State C. Douglas Dillon reportedly will be named chief assistant to Secretary of State Christian A. Herter. He may have much broader duties than anyone who filled such a position in the past.

Dillon, 49, is now in charge of foreign economic affairs. In his new position he may be allowed to continue direct supervisions of the government's multibillion dollar foreign aid program as well as taking over political problems which Herter formerly handled as chief assistant to John Foster Dulles.

The added duties for Dillon are being considered by Herter as part of a reshuffle of top officials. Officials said one shift already decided upon will return career diplomat Raymond Hare from Cairo, where he is ambassador to Egypt, to become assistant secretary of state for the Middle East and South Asia.

Robert Murphy, now deputy under secretary in charge of political affairs, may be promoted to full under secretary to take over Dillon's old job.

The assistant secretary for Europe, Livingston Merchant, would be promoted to Murphy's old spot. Douglas MacArthur II, now ambassador to Japan, is being mentioned as a replacement for Merchant.

Officials said most of the shifts probably will be delayed until after the May 11 Western Big Four foreign ministers meeting.

Daughters Wait For New General

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was a long wait for the Daughters of the American Revolution to learn today that Mrs. Ashmead White of Lubec, Maine, was their new president general.

The announcement was made about 2:30 a.m. in Constitution Hall after hours of tallying the results.

Mrs. White and her slate of 11 other candidates won the close contest for the DAR national offices. Their term is three years.

Demonstrates Jetliner

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Trans World Airlines gave 102 Kansas City civic leaders a 460-mile demonstration ride to St. Louis and back in a new jet airliner Thursday.

The flying carpet treatment included a snack for the guests.

Four hostesses had to restrict the snack to coffee and tarts, and they had to work fast.

The ride lasted only 52 minutes — 45 minutes to St. Louis and 28 minutes back.

Nehru Invites Reds To Visit Dalai Lama

India Leader Announces 'Door Open'

He Expresses Hope Tibetan Ruler Returns to Lhasa

MUSSOORIE, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru today invited Chinese Communist representatives and their puppet ruler of Tibet, the Panchen Lama, to visit the Dalai Lama at his refuge here in north India.

Nehru said he hoped the Dalai Lama, Tibet's 23-year-old spiritual and temporal ruler, would return to Lhasa, the Tibetan capital. It was an obvious bid to reconcile the Red Chinese government and the Tibetan god-king, who fled from Communist domination of his homeland.

The Indian Prime Minister made his peace overture in an impromptu news conference two hours before meeting with the Dalai Lama. Nehru arrived from New Delhi earlier today.

"I will welcome the Panchen Lama to come and meet the Dalai Lama and whomever he likes," said Nehru.

The Prime Minister said "the door is open" for the Chinese ambassador to India or any high representative of the Peiping government to see the Tibetan executive, who has set up headquarters in exile in a large mansion in this Himalayan hill station.

Nehru has refused to condemn the Chinese Communists for the repression of the Tibetan rebellion. But he has said India's sympathies are with the Tibetans and that autonomy, or local self-government, is the only ultimate solution for the situation in Tibet.

Nehru also made clear to the newsmen that he hopes the Dalai Lama would say nothing to upset further relations between India and the Red Chinese, already strained by the widespread Indian sympathy for the Tibetan rebels and the Indian government's publication of the Dalai Lama's statement denying Chinese Communist charges that the rebels forced him to leave Lhasa.

BULLETIN

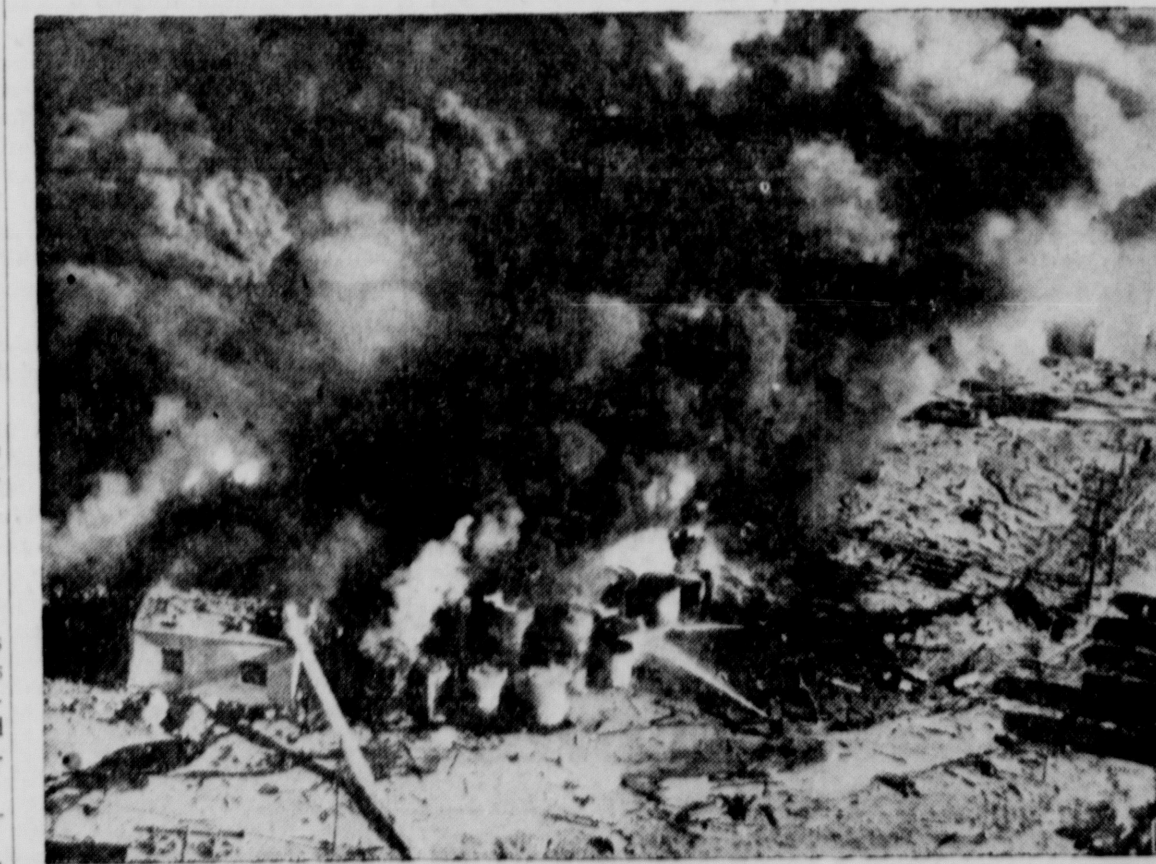

Otis Harris, operator of the Harris Bar-B-Que, 119 North Broadway, was sentenced to one year and one day imprisonment in the custody of the US Attorney General, on a charge of selling liquor without a federal retail liquor dealer's license.

He was placed in the custody of the US Marshal's office in Kansas City this morning to await a decision on the institution of imprisonment.

Harris pleaded guilty to the charge in US District Court in Jefferson City March 24. Judge Richard Duncan then deferred sentence until April 24, to allow time for pre-sentencing investigation.

The US Attorney's office in Kansas City announced the sentencing Friday.

All Quiet At Scene Of Strike

But Rifle Bullets Hit Cotton Mills On Thursday Night

HENDERSON, N.C. (AP) — First-shift workers entered the struck Harriet-Henderson Cotton Mills without incident today after the third straight night of violence in this small industrial city.

Following a pattern established earlier in the week, only a few strikers showed up at the mills' heavily guarded North and South Henderson plants to jeer and shout at incoming workers.

Rifle shots peppered the plants again Thursday night until second-shift employees departed under police and highway patrol guard.

No serious injuries were reported among the workers or the large number of shouting pickets gathered outside the mill gates.

Operation of a second shift at the plants, struck Nov. 15, has brought criticism from Gov. Luther Hodges, who said he had warned the management it might.

Shortly before the second shift left at 11 p.m., highway patrolmen fired two parachute flares over the South Henderson plant. Other patrolmen patrolled a back street across from the mill where most of the sniper fire had originated.

Under the brilliant light of the flares and the watchful eyes of the patrolmen, the workers left without incident.

In Raleigh, Gov. Hodges, himself a former textile official, disclosed he had warned mill president, John D. Cooper Jr. April 16 against opening the second shift.

Cooper, who started the second shift April 20, told Hodges that to close the shift would be "an absolute surrender to force and violence."

Gov. Hodges said he released details of his letter to Cooper "to remind Cooper of his personal responsibility for the present difficulty."

Cooper said previously he would close the mills permanently if he had to close down any of the shifts.

The strike began after the company insisted on elimination of an arbitration clause from a new contract with the Textile Workers Union of America. It apparently had been settled April 17.

Some Moisture Likely Tonight or Saturday

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Some moisture appears in the Missouri Weather forecast.

The weather bureau expects scattered showers in the west and north tonight and in the east and south Saturday. It also will be cooler in the north and turning cooler in the south Saturday. Lows tonight will be in the lower 40s northwest to the 50s southwest, with the highs Saturday in the 50s in the extreme northwest to the 70s southeast.

Drill teams of Bethel 33 and Bethel 26, from Kansas City and Raytown, area are traveling to St. Louis to participate in special drills on Friday evening.

Installation of Grand Bethel officers will be held this evening and the formal opening of the Grand Council will be at 8 o'clock this evening.

A banquet for more than 600 persons will be held at the Scottish Rite Cathedral on Saturday evening, April 25.

Something Special In Police Work

SAN MARINO, Calif. (AP)—San Marino is an exclusive Los Angeles suburb, noted for its millionaires. The relationship between the citizenry and the police department is something special.

The police notified Emilie E. King her dog Jackal had been picked up, having violated the city ordinance against dogs running loose.

Would she care to come down to the station and retrieve Jackal and accept a notice of violation? Mrs. King said she couldn't make it, but she was anxious to get the dog back. So Jackal was put in a taxicab by officer Wayne Bramstedt and rode home in style. The notice of violation rode with him.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Bettie D. Langley

Mrs. Bettie D. Langley, 63, died at 4:20 p. m. Wednesday April 22, at the home of a nephew, Raymond French, in California, Mo. Mrs. Langley was born June 20, 1895, at Castlewood, Va., daughter of the late Leonard and Margaret Counts Self and was married to Floyd Langley, who preceded her in death Nov. 28, 1944. She was a member of a Baptist Church in St. Louis.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Quince Hayse, Sedalia and Mrs. Nannie Fraley, St. Paul, Va., two brothers, Dallas Self, St. Louis, and Gilmer Self, El Segundo, Calif.; several nieces and nephews.

The body was taken to the Kidwell Funeral Home where funeral services were at 2:30 p.m. Friday, the Rev. Lloyd Johnson officiating.

Burial was in Freedom Cemetery, near Versailles.

Pornographic Books Not Cause of Crime, Veteran Judge Rules

BOSTON (AP)—A veteran Massachusetts judge says he doesn't believe pornographic literature leads its readers to crime.

Municipal Court Judge Elijah Adlow, who has been on the bench for 30 years, said "sex violence is congenital, the type is predisposed to it. They're born that way; few get the habit from association. I doubt you can trace their disposition to this literature although a great many like to collect and read those dirty books."

His statement was made Thursday before the Massachusetts Commission on Obscene Literature.

Informed that FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover recently described pornography as a major cause of juvenile crime, Judge Adlow said "I doubt it."

Firestone President To Direct Drive For Hall of Fame Funds

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Raymond C. Firestone of Bath, Ohio, president of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co., will direct a campaign to raise five million dollars for the Agricultural Hall of Fame.

Firestone's appointment as national chairman of the drive was announced last night at a dinner meeting of about 200 local civic leaders.

The memorial to the nation's agricultural leaders will be built on a 409-acre site 15 miles west of Kansas City, Kan.

Dr. A. Webster Tenney, Hall of Fame executive director, said the money-raising drive will include an appeal to farmers to make gifts of grain.

Open Inland Seaway

MONTREAL (AP)—More than 50 ships anchored along 30 miles of river are ready to pass through the 475-million-dollar funnel called the St. Lawrence Seaway on its opening Saturday and sail on into the Great Lakes.

The ships represent almost every maritime nation. They include many large ocean-going vessels, the first of their kind to reach the Great Lakes.

Elaborate ceremonies are being prepared to greet the vessels as they enter various harbors.

Official opening ceremonies will be held June 26 with President Eisenhower and Queen Elizabeth II attending.

Khrushchev, Nasser May Get Along

CAIRO (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has suggested to President Gamal Abdel Nasser that they patch up their differences, reliable informants said today.

Nasser is expected to agree to a reconciliation with the understanding that the Soviet premier will not oppose his campaign against Communists inside the Arab world.

Egyptian informants said such a reconciliation would not necessarily mean any worsening of Nasser's relations with the West. The United Arab Republic is quietly trying to improve commercial dealings with several Western countries, and anti-Western bloodshed.

Informants said Khrushchev held out the olive branch to the U.A.R. president in a letter delivered by Soviet Ambassador E. D. Kisselev on Monday.

The Soviet premier reportedly agreed to refrain from interfering in Arab internal affairs and asked for a return of normal relations with the U.A.R.

Relations between Moscow and Cairo deteriorated sharply in March when Khrushchev publicly criticized Nasser's anti-Communist campaign and called the U.A.R. president a "hot-headed young man."

Hitting back, Nasser for the first time linked the Soviets with his denunciation of Arab Reds. He even denied the Soviets had materially helped Egypt during the Suez crisis in 1956.

Reliable Egyptian sources emphasized Nasser had not sought a personal fight with Khrushchev but that he was determined not to accept the Soviet premier's support of Arab Communists against the U.A.R.

Khrushchev openly took the side of Iraqi Premier Abdel Karim Kassam, who is waging a bitter struggle with Nasser for top place in the Arab world.

Soviet economic aid and arms being given the U.A.R. make it clearly in Nasser's interest to get back on speaking terms at least with Khrushchev.

Sedalian

"The lady certainly was paying attention to what she was doing, as her reactions were quick enough to succeed in swerving to the right, and he missed her. It came only a short distance further and crashed head-on into my tractor. She did a beautiful job of handling her car, missing the other car and barely missing the warning standards along the highway," Quinn remarked to bystanders.

The lady was Mrs. Harry Goldberg, 3019 East 12th, who was driving east. Mrs. Goldberg reported that she noticed the car coming on her side and pulled to the right in time to miss being hit by the oncoming automobile.

"I barely missed those posts. And a second later I heard the crash between the car and truck," Mrs. Goldberg said.

The collision occurred in the south center lane of the highway. So great was the impact that the front end of the Studebaker went under the high bumper of the tractor and shoved the motor back, bent the drive shaft, the hood was smashed back against the windshield, and the front end was stripped back from the frame.

The steering wheel was shoved upward and broke the windshield. The heavy steel bumper, made of quarter inch reinforced steel, was snapped in two on the left front frame and the center of the bumper bent in a V shape where the block of the Studebaker motor struck it. The floor boards of the cab of the truck were also driven upward.

Bacon's Service Station small wrecker towed the Studebaker to its station, while a large wrecker of Bacon's towed the tractor-trailer to the A and W Root Beer drive. A wrecker from the Manor Baking Co. towed another tractor unit to Sedalia to replace the damaged vehicle and towed the wrecked tractor back to Kansas City.

The Studebaker was listed as demolished by the police, while more than $1,000 damages resulted to the tractor.

Mr. White was employed as a salesman for Ed's Welding and Supply Co., 2500 West Main.

He was twice married and is survived by: His second wife, Mrs. Peggy Ruth White of the home; seven children, two by his first marriage, Harvey Claude White, Jr., 125 East Saline; James White, in the Air Force at Schilling Air Force Base, Salina, Kan.; Claude Rose, Michael Lee, John Joseph, Penny Lynn and Mark Wayne White, of the home, his mother, Mrs. Sarah Jane Neece, 315 North Hurley; four brothers, Leon White, 1510 East Broadway; Nelson White, 1010 East Fifth; Irving White, Kansas City; and Norman White, San Diego, Calif.

He attended the Assembly of God church.

The body was taken to the McLaughlin Funeral Chapel, where funeral services will be at 2 p. m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Lucille Ray, 1700 East 18th, reported at 4:23 p. m. Thursday that a boy, LeRoy Burns, who is in her charge, was missing. He left Whittier School at noon Thursday. According to Mrs. Ray, LeRoy's mother is in Ionia, Mo., and she said she did not think the boy would go there. However, at 6:10 p.m. the police department received another report that the boy was with his mother.

A horse was reported running loose at 5:15 p.m. Thursday on 16th street just west of Limit. The horse, it was reported, caused a minor accident at 20th and Limit. Both drivers left the scene before an investigation could be made.

The horse, after a brief chase, was caught by the owner.

Della Stuart, 1116 East Ninth, swore out warrants for John McDonald, 1119 East Tenth, and Edgar Urton, 1118 East Ninth, charging them with keeping a nuisance by keeping dogs that bark and howl all the time. Urton posted a $25 bond to be in court April 27. The McDonald warrant has not yet been served.

Leo Green, 1312 South Osage, reported someone tore the antennae off his car parked in front of his home.

Paul P. Simon, Pilot Grove, was arrested at Hap's Tavern on investigation of forgery. He was placed in jail. Prosecuting Attorney Harold Barrick filed a state charge of forgery against him in Magistrate Court Friday morning. He was transferred to the Pettis County jail.

Harold Kasten, of Minn., was found mooching at Third and Vermont and taken to the police station. He was questioned, then taken to the edge of town and told to keep going.

Vernon R. Ditton, 411 East 11th, called police and stated he had a stray bicycle at his home. The owner may pick it up there.

• Police Court

Kenneth Carl Siron, Route 3, Sedalia, charged with speeding 40 miles per hour in a 30-mile zone, from Park west on Main, forfeited a $10 cash bond.

Three overtime parkers failed to appear in police court and their cash bonds of $1 each were ordered forfeited, while 84 others paid the 25-cent fee.

Truman Records Part Of His Celebration

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP)—Harry S. Truman got part of his birthday celebration out of the way yesterday.

The former President will be 75 May 8 and the Democratic party will help celebrate with various fund-raising dinners over the nation.

Television technicians swarmed through the Truman Library yesterday making an advance recording that will be shown at New York and the dinners through closed-circuit television.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman will leave by train tomorrow for New York where they will visit their daughter, Mrs. Clifton Daniel, her husband and the Daniels' son.

Truman's eastern schedule includes lectures at Columbia University April 27-28-29 and a trip to Washington to receive a citation for starting the Point Four program.

• Fires In City

The fire companies at 7:01 p.m. Thursday were called to 617 West Seventh where sparks from a trash fire set fire to a barn. Slight damage resulted.

Both fire trucks answered a call to 18th and Brown at 10:30 a.m. Friday, where a building under construction was on fire. The blaze was quickly extinguished by use of a booster tank and one pump bucket.

There were no injuries. The cedar siding being applied to the building received about $30 damage. Firemen said a pile of odds and ends of lumber mixed with trash, piled alongside the building caught fire, possibly from a burning cigarette, and spread to the building.

The building is owned by Edgar Blakely, 419 East 16th.

Former Sedalian Dies in Crash; St. Louis Rites

Funeral services for Capt. Raymond Moeckel, 42, a former Sedalian, who was killed last Monday in a plane crash near Hamilton Air Force Base, Calif., are to be held in St. Louis. The body, accompanied by his family is being flown to St. Louis by the Air Force.

Capt. Moeckel resided in Sedalia in 1921 and 1922 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph L. Moeckel of St. Louis. Their home was in the 1100 block of South Massachusetts. They also resided in Cole Camp before coming here and going to St. Louis.

The father at that time was a chiropractor and shared an office with Dr. Roy M. Keller, before leaving here for St. Louis, where he entered the postal service.

Capt. Moeckel is survived by his wife and seven children.

Capt. Moeckel was a nephew of Mrs. C. M. Schoenfeld, of the Quincy apartments, and a first cousin of Mrs. Ralph Hamlin, wife of Chief of Police Hamlin, 1010 Crescent Drive.

School Board Official Gets Jail Sentence

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—The president of the Spokane School Board pleaded guilty Thursday to picking up a 16-year-old girl and was sentenced to 90 days in jail for vagrancy.

Edward S. Justice, 46, a businessman and former halfback for the Washington Redskins pro football team, began his jail sentence immediately.

Justice, married and the father of two boys, admitted he picked up the girl and took her for a ride in his car Easter Sunday evening. He denied any "lewd or disolute" conduct.

The girl, who is married but separated from her husband, did not file a complaint against Justice. Neither did she appear in court.

Justice was arrested after police received telephone calls from several persons who saw Justice and the girl together.

Justice's attorney, Harold Gleeason, said he will resign as school board president. He said his family "is sticking by him."

Sunday School Lesson Notes: Intermediate Day Held At First Baptist

By William E. Gilroy, D.D.

What mystery is there in connection with David, King of Israel? Is not the record of his life and reign set forth with much detail in the Old Testament Books of Samuel and Kings?

The mystery is: why a man whose life was largely involved in war and violence, and who deliberately planned the murder of a man, Uriah, whose only offense was that he was the husband of Bathsheba, the woman for whom David lusted, should have become to such an extent a figure and symbol of religious faith and devotion.

The solution is manifold: It is partly because so much of good quality is beyond the dark side of the picture.

Imagination has seized strongly upon the shepherd-boy hero, the giant-killer with his sling, who at the same time was the tender singer with the harp, and a figure of magnanimity in sparing the life of Saul, who had sought more than once to kill him.

It is a complex and rather amazing story of a man whose character and actions had many sides. But beyond this, a fundamental fact is that he was the founder of Jerusalem, Mount Zion, the "city of David," which for Jews and Christians is a holy place, a symbol also of faith and devotion.

One need hardly stress the extent to which David and Jerusalem have been absorbed in religious literature.

It is not only in the Psalms, known universally as "the Psalms of David," though it is doubtful how much was of actual Davidic authorship. The tradition of David as musician and sweet singer has been intimately associated with worship and hymnology, though the Psalms for some have constituted the only hymns.

I think the positive goodness in David, whether it is over-emphasized in tradition or not, accounts for the way in which the dark side has been less regarded.

In achievement, King David stands in an unquestioned place as a great soldier, conqueror, and leader. He made possible the "glory of Solomon."

It is just there, however, that the full trend of events, and judgment, begins to appear. No where, so far as I can see, has there been in history a plainer confirmation of the ancient Hebrew moral declaration: "Be sure your sin will find you out," than the complete story of David, and the unfolding result of his sin with Bathsheba.

It was the initial event leading to the civil war that split the Kingdom of Israel, the ultimate downfall of the Northern Kingdom of the Ten Tribes, and the Babylonian Exile of those of the Southern Kingdom. It all came about through Bathsheba, whom David coveted.

Sometimes it takes a long time for sin really to be found out. But the Bible itself says something about the third and fourth generation.

First Methodist Topic For Sunday Services

The Rev. Roy B. Stribling, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will use "The Maximum Living" for his sermon subject Sunday morning at the worship service. The Chancel Choir will sing "Hymn of Joy," by James, and the Chapel Choir will sing, "Saviour, Blessed Saviour," by Mueller.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at 6:30 p. m. The program will be under the Fellowship Area of which Sara Sutton is chairman.

Boy Scout Troop 54 will meet Monday 7 to 8:30 p. m.

The second training session of the every member canvass will meet Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. This will be a very interesting session as a skit has been prepared and a film strip will be shown. Dr. Ira White is chairman of this committee and Vernon Rodick is training leader.

The Youth Council will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The regular Wednesday evening services will be held.

The last Quarterly Conference will be held Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Dr. Robert M. Lehen, superintendent of Sedalia District, will be in charge.

Harmony Baptists To Hold Quarterly Meet

The Harmony Baptist Association will hold a quarterly meeting April 28, beginning at 10 a. m. at the County Line Baptist Church. The program theme will be, "Now It Is Spring."

Roll call will be answered by each WMU president reporting on their "Annie Armstrong" offering. Other reports will be given in the morning session, using as a theme, "Foods in a Pictorial Basket."

The following reports will be given in the afternoon session: "New Plants to Nurture," by Mrs. Dryden, enlistment chairman; "More Daylight Vision," by Mrs. Alsip, mission study chairman; "Through an Open Window," by Mrs. Nicholas, publications chairman; a skit, "What Is Your Name?" with Edna Abney in charge.

The highlights of the state WMU meeting held April 2-3 will be given.

Special music will be in charge of Mrs. Owen. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.

Pastor Klemme Talks At Immanuel Sunday

"What Love Makes Possible," will be the sermon title of pastor Armin F. Klemme at Immanuel Evangelical and Reformed Church (United Church of Christ) Sunday. All confirmands of the past five years are to be at the church by 12:45 p. m. Sunday to attend the Heritage Heyday Rally at Booneville. Transportation will be provided. There will be recreation, dramatization, and refreshments. All will be back by 6 p. m.

The annual Youth Talent program of the Junior High and Senior High Youth Fellowships will be given in the basement of the service building Monday, 7:30 p. m. The community is invited. A free offering will be received, which will go for the window fund. Various instrumental and vocal numbers and skits will be presented. Refreshments will be served at the end of the program.

Immanuel Senior Choir will practice Thursday, 7:30 p. m. A number of ladies will attend the May Fellowship luncheon and program at First Christian Church, Friday, 12:30 p. m.

Sacred Heart Club to Give Big Concert

By Beth Staley

The Sacred Heart Glee Club will present its annual Spring Concert on Sunday, April 26, beginning at 8 p. m. in the Sacred Heart Gymnasium. This fundraising event will be quite an elaborate production with selections by not only the entire glee club, but also smaller groups and soloists. Tickets for the Concert may be secured from any Sacred Heart High student.

The Activity Banquet will be held Monday evening, April 27. This annual banquet is given for the members of the athletic teams, their parents, and others who either helped at the gate or in other ways assisted at the games. Athletic letters will be given to those students who have earned theirs, and next year's team captains will be announced.

Another big annual event is the Spring Formal, the last formal dance of the year. This Student Council-sponsored dance will be held Saturday, May 2, from 8:30 to 11:30. The Council has asked the Bob Cummings band to play for the dance.

The intra-mural play contest is also coming soon, and the three lower classes have selected their players and chosen the casts. The senior class has been busy with their class play, "Bolts and Nuts," which they presented very successfully Sunday evening. Their play was under the direction of Father G. P. Pelletier.

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test will be taken Tuesday, April 28. The five individual subjects included in this three-hour test are: English usage, mathematics usage, social studies reading, natural sciences reading, and word usage. The examination emphasis is on broad standing of and ability to use what has been learned, rather than on sheer knowledge of facts.

Leaves a Message

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A burglar ransacked the home of Edgar A. Patterson and left this message, scrawled in lipstick on a bedroom mirror:

"It is with regret,
"Your goods I beget,
"But for over a week,
"I ain't won a bet."

Not much of a poet and not much of a burglar either. He took a hi-fi set but overlooked Mrs. Patterson's mink coat.

The Vanishing Primary

America's system of presidential preference primaries always has been a topic of controversy. The sharpest critics think it's useless, and even the kindest acknowledge that the setup is confused and inconsistent.

The rules governing these primaries are all over the lot. Some of the preference votes are binding on convention delegates; that is, they must support the winner for varying periods. Other votes are purely advisory and delegates can ignore them if they choose.

The variety of other details affecting these popular expressions is almost endless.

There were never as many as 20 primaries in a 48-state nation. Now, with 50 states, the prospect in 1960 is for less than in a long time. A trend may be at work.

Minnesota has abolished its early spring primary, which twice in the last decade had important effect on the selection of presidential nominees. In 1952 President Eisenhower ran up a smashing 108,000-vote write-in, to send his candidacy soaring. In 1956 Sen. Estes Kefauver upset Adlai Stevenson to threaten the latter's second nomination for a time.

Serious talk is under way in Florida looking toward canceling that primary, which also witnessed a stiff Stevenson-Kefauver battle. And California, scene of another primary fight between that pair, has a bill through its state senate to knock out the preference vote.

Some signs exist that the California measure won't get through. But enough is in the wind to disturb those who believe the expression of the popular will ought to play a prominent part in the choice of presidential nominees.

With all their flaws, the 15 or so primaries we have do give us a kind of rough index to popular thinking. To eliminate them is to silence the popular voice and throw both decision and control back into the hands of party politicians, many of whom are not directly answerable to the people for their performance.

That's the way they want it, of course, and that explains these moves away from the primary system. But is that the way it really should be?

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Committee System Has Weak Links

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Northern congressmen for a long time have griped at the way southern committee chairmen have used highhanded methods in blocking important legislation. Congressman Howard Smith of Virginia, for instance, went off to tend his five dairy herds for five days last summer while vital bills were stymied in his rules committee.

Now the shoe is on the other foot.

Last week a northern congressman, William Dawson of Illinois, the senior Negro in Congress, went off to Chicago after either sending or authorizing a mysterious telegram aimed at influencing a grand jury in Alabama.

This grand jury was entrusted with digging into an important highway scandal. It did not seek advice from Washington, though it had sought the testimony of a congressional investigator sent to Alabama on behalf of the government operations committee. He had brought back a report which bore out serious charges made against Gov. John Patterson's administration by State Representative Charles Trimmer in the Alabama legislature. But without waiting to read the report, though after consulting Congressman Frank Boykin, Alabama's leading race-baiter, Chairman Dawson either sent or authorized Boykin to send a telegram to the grand jury stating "there is not a scintilla of evidence in the land case. We washed our hands of this case on the floor of the House yesterday."

The telegram not only was untrue, but was couched in terms deliberately calculated to influence the jury. It is against the law to influence a grand jury in Alabama, as it is in most states.

One-Man Rule

The fact that this deceptive and misleading telegram was sent in the name of a responsible chairman of a House committee illustrates one of the great weaknesses of the "democratic" system in Congress today. The unfortunate fact is that there is no more democracy in Congress under the present committee system than there is in the presidium of Soviet Russia.

To illustrate, here is what happened when the telegram was sent from Congress to Mobile at 3:58 p.m. on Thursday, April 16. Word of the telegram reached Congressman John Blatnik of Minnesota, chairman of the subcommittee on public roads, on Friday, April 17, from Alabama State Representative Trimmer.

Think It Through

By E. F. HUTTON

GRANDMA WAS RIGHT — Remember Grandma's cucumber pickles? How firm and good they were? Grandma put grape leaves in the brine. Probably her ma had done it before her. No "book learnin'" involved.

Just an old wives' tale, the next generation said. But the pickle manufacturers sometimes lost a million bucks a year because their cucumbers turned soft. Who wants to nibble a squishy pickle?

Well, sir, Department of Agriculture scientists have proved that Grandma was right. Enzymes turn cucumbers soft and grape leaves stop enzymes dead in their tracks.

And then, seems like I've heard tell that when the old-timers cut themselves, they slapped a hunk of moldy bread on the wound. That was years before Alexander Fleming, in 1929, discovered penicillin, made from mold.

Now I'm not saying that all the old-timers' ideas worked out good. Nobody who's seen the cockneyed contraptions in the Patent Office museum would say that. But their batting average was probably as good as that of today's gadgeteers.

All I'm saying is that in this age of fads and frenzies, it's a mistake to call Grandma and Grandma old fogies. Fact is that the foundations of our dazzling new inventions were all laid by old-timers—sometimes centuries ago.

Maybe the Constitution makers knew something Congress has forgotten.

Anyhow, John Hartford, of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company, now a century old—and going strong—said, "Always listen to the voice of experience."

Blatnik, who was in charge of the investigation, didn't know a thing about the telegram. He knew all about the investigation and should have been consulted. But Chairman Dawson didn't bother to consult him. The senior Negro in Congress consulted instead with Congressman Boykin of Alabama, a vigorous champion of the Ku Klux Klan and the White Citizens Councils, who has been wanting to kill the grand jury probe.

When Blatnik learned of the telegram he tried to reach Chairman Dawson, but Dawson had gone to Chicago. Dawson's staff said they could not reach him.

Meanwhile the grand jury, meeting in Mobile, was nearing the end of its session. It was supposed to find for or against one of Governor Patterson's henchmen in a serious highway scandal. The jury had received a telegram from the chairman of a responsible committee of Congress saying there "was not a scintilla of evidence." Yet the jurors knew that the congressional investigator sent from Washington had found just the opposite.

Who were they to believe—Chairman Dawson or the evidence?

In this situation, not one member of Congress was willing to go over the head of absent chairman Dawson and inform the jury that the telegram did not represent the committee's real findings. The system of committee seniority is such that the august Congress of the United States was willing to see a miscarriage of justice rather than overrule an absentee chairman.

Do-Nothing Congress

On the government operations committee under Dawson are some important congressmen. They include Clet Holifield of California, House Majority Leader John McCormack of Massachusetts, Porter Hardy of Virginia, Jack Brooks of Texas.

In fairness it should be stated that many of them did not know what had happened. But the counsel and staff of the committee did. However, the chairman-is-omnipotent system is such that the staff did absolutely nothing about preventing a miscarriage of justice even though urged to do so.

It made no difference that the grand jury had a false telegram and was likely to act on it. What mattered in the so-called democratic House of Representatives was that the one-man ruler of the committee, Chairman Dawson, was in Chicago.

On the government operations committee are several southern congressmen who have fought bitterly against pro-Negro legislation. But when it came to moving against a Negro chairman in order to prevent a miscarriage of justice, the deep-dyed-in-the-wool seniority system prevailed.

As of this writing, the august House of Representatives has done absolutely nothing to inform the Alabama grand jury that the telegram it received was false. All that has happened is that Chairman Dawson is fuming furiously over the fact that he was caught conspiring with a leading Negro-baiter, Boykin of Alabama.

What Congress needs most is an investigation of itself. But it won't happen.

Note—Both Dawson and Blatnik are now trying to wriggle off the hook by claiming federal funds were not involved in the scandal. This is a technicality which in no way justifies the wire that no evidence of wrongdoing had been uncovered.

Help for Tibet

Between 7,000 and 10,000 Tibetan refugees have slipped through the high Himalayan passes that lead from revolt-racked Tibet into India. Many of them are in dire need of chemical aid.

The Indians are hard pressed to furnish the necessary aid, too proud to call for outside help. Meanwhile the American Red Cross has refused help unless the Indian government formally requests it.

As a result, Dr. Maung Sein, an American of Indian ancestry, has started a one-man campaign to recruit a medical team and collect medical supplies for a humanitarian mission to the Tibetan border.

He has already enlisted the support of several prominent doctors.

Castro Must Soon Get Down to Hard Work

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

Associated Press News Analyst

Fidel Castro's visit to the United States apparently has done a world of good both for him and for American understanding of what happened in Cuba. But unless Castro puts to work what he appears to have learned in this country, his future and that of the Cuban revolution will be in danger.

The Castro I saw Thursday, when he was the guest of the Overseas Press Club in New York, was still an astonishing personality. But in some respects he differed much from the Castro I saw in Havana after the revolution overwhelmed the Cuban capital.

He seems to have learned some humility. Watching him fielding tough questions from veteran overseas reporters, one felt he had concluded that if there is to be proper understanding between North Americans and Cubans, he would have to be a heavy contributor to it. In fact, he said part of his mission was to "wipe out the prejudice of us to you and you to us."

The young Prime Minister, still wearing army fatigues, bushy beard and innocent look, captured and captivated his audience. But he failed to dispel all the nagging doubts about him and some of those who surround him.

Eloquently he defended his own ideas of revolutionary justice. The firing squads, he insisted, were an example to present and future police and soldiers "so they never again will torture for political purposes."

The ideas he propounded seemed noble enough. But often 32-year-old Castro seemed to be a man way off on cloud 9, far removed from the realities of politics, economics, government and life.

Castro's uniform itself is disquieting. A prime minister in uniform indicates a military government. Military government suggests dictatorship. It would seem wise for him to discard his hero's garb, to don civilian dress and get down to the hard work of making a government function.

Cuba's economy is shaky. Castro needs help if he, his government and hopeful revolution are to survive.

There are forces at work inside and outside Cuba anxious to bring Castro to his knees. His enemies outside the country have much more money than backed Castro's revolution. His internal enemies include trained soldiers discharged from the Batista army. They may number many thousands more than the rag-tag band of guerrilla fighters who took to the woods with Castro and his 26th of July Movement in 1956.

Looking Backward...

By Joseph A. Dear

of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — The privilege of loading the payroll with relative and political pals isn't the only perquisite of Congressional office.

The fringe benefits of congressional office would turn a unionist green with envy. And the evil of it all is not the existence of the benefits or the practice of nepotism, but the mantle of secrecy thrown around backstage operations on Capitol Hill.

All members of Congress, including the most vociferous opponents of socialized medicine, enjoy its blessings. For their benefit, the Navy staffs an office at the Capitol, complete with doctors and crpsmen. More serious ailments are treated at the Navy's Bethesda Medical Center or at the National Institute of Health.

There are no doctor bills. Twelve dollars daily, just the amount authorized in most insurance policies, covers the cost of a private room.

Members of Congress can participate in a model pension program. Six years participation assures the member an income on retirement. Maximum pension payments are three quarter's of a congressman's salary.

Senators get free haircuts. Members of the House get haircuts cutrate at a subsidized barber shop. They eat at a subsidized restaurant. Every year the fine print in some money bill provides for an appropriation to cover the deficit.

There's a bank on Capitol Hill. It will loan any member up to one year's salary without collateral.

Then there are the junkets. Members of Congress have an unparalleled opportunity for travel. This opportunity they take advantage of. And why not? You pay for it.

This leads up to what is probably the single worst abuse that can be charged up to the legislators. The traveling Congressman can dip into a magic purse in practically any corner of the globe.

This purse is filled by counterpart funds. These are local currencies thrown in the kitty by foreign nations that are receiving economic aid from the United States. For each dollar the United States puts up, the receiving nation makes a matching contribution in its own currency.

For several years, junketing Congressmen could tap the counterpart funds without ever making any accounting. Whether the money was used for a legitimate purpose or for a gay night in Paris was between the lawmaker and his conscience.

An accounting is required now. But by committee, not by individual lawmaker. So you can find out how much is counterpart funds a committee spent. But you can't find out how much any one committee member spent, or for what.

Ex-Rep. Dawson (R-Utah) called for a more detailed accounting. But he's an ex, and his departure probably occasioned no great regret in the House.

That's the odd part of it. Most of the fellows on the Hill. Republicans and Democrats, are not only intelligent, but honest and hard working. Yet most of them can't or won't see that the mantle of secrecy offers no protection.

Congressmen could simplify their political problems by opening all the books and all the records. That would put a Front Porch Harmon (he's the freshman Democrat from Indiana who rented his front porch to the government as an office) out of business before he began.

Henry M. Stanley, the British explorer, was the first white man to follow the course of the Congo River far into the interior of Africa. He did this in 1874-77. But in spite of his reports of the possible wealth of the region, only King Leopold II of Belgium saw the opportunities for trade. Leopold financed Stanley's return to the Congo. Other adventurous white men followed. In 1885 the Congo Free State was formed with King Leopold as its head.

Good Earth Under Our Feet

Relation of Christianity To Stewardship of the Soil

By Rev. William Hepting
Pastor of Holy Cross
Lutheran Church, Emma, Mo.

Christian people everywhere realize with thankful hearts that Christ has redeemed us not with gold or silver but with His holy precious blood, with His innocent suffering and death, that we might be His own and live through Him in His Kingdom and serve Him. They know that they belong to Him with all that they are and with all that they have. Whether they live in the city or in the country — whether they be tillers of the soil professional people, in the business world, or workers in the factory — they are first of all the Lord's stewards, managers and administrators of the Lord's possessions. The Lord has charged them to be His stewards for a season; and He expects it of His stewards that they will manage well with whatever time, talents, or treasures He has entrusted to them.

We do not intend to write extensively about the whole stewardship life of the Christian in this article, but rather limit ourselves to a few remarks about one particular treasure that God has given to a small segment of the population of the United States. That treasure is the soil, the good earth under our feet. Today only about 12 per cent of the people of our land are tillers of the soil. We realize, of course, that farmers and farm families have other treasures also, such as homes and machinery, means of transportation and communication, cattle, and a thousand and one other treasures, including that fine, uncontaminated country air.

Today we hear much about the vanishing of the family-size farm. Really those farms are not vanishing at all, but they are getting larger, and as the farms get larger the number of families decreases. Rural sociologists and farm economists tell us that a good family-size farm ought to be a farm of about 240 acres. That is considerably larger than the family-size farm of 20 or 30 years ago. All this talk should not alarm us, because we know that 96 per cent of our farms are still family operations; and this is about the same percentage-wise as it was thirty years ago.

Let's think for a moment about that acreage that the Christian farmer "owns." Just what does he mean when he says "This farm belongs to me"? Did he own that farm a hundred years ago? No. Will he be the owner of it a hundred years from now? No. Actually that farm belongs to the Lord, who made it. The man who lives on it and works that ground for a season is but the steward. That is exactly what the Good Book tells us: "The earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof", 1 Cor. 10:28. "Every beast of the forest is Mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills", Psalm 50, 10. The earth belongs to its Maker, but God has given it to all men of all time as His greatest material gift, but only loaned to each generation.

Mindful of this fact, the Christian farmer strives to use only the best stewardship practices on his farm. He is a faithful steward of

Numbers Pay Off

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Who'd ever think of writing down the serial numbers of all their dollar bills?

Pearl Richards did. Now she's seven bucks richer — that is, she's not seven bucks poorer.

Her wallet was stolen last week from a cafe she operates. A transient cook was arrested Thursday for a burglary. In his pocket, police found seven dollar bills.

They turned out to be Mrs. Richards' bills.

She knew the numbers because she was saving the bills in hopes of winning a television station's "lucky buck" contest.

Matter of FACT

Henry M. Stanley, the British explorer, was the first white man to follow the course of the Congo River far into the interior of Africa. He did this in 1874-77. But in spite of his reports of the possible wealth of the region, only King Leopold II of Belgium saw the opportunities for trade. Leopold financed Stanley's return to the Congo. Other adventurous white men followed. In 1885 the Congo Free State was formed with King Leopold as its head.

Quinn Chapel Youth In Charge Sunday

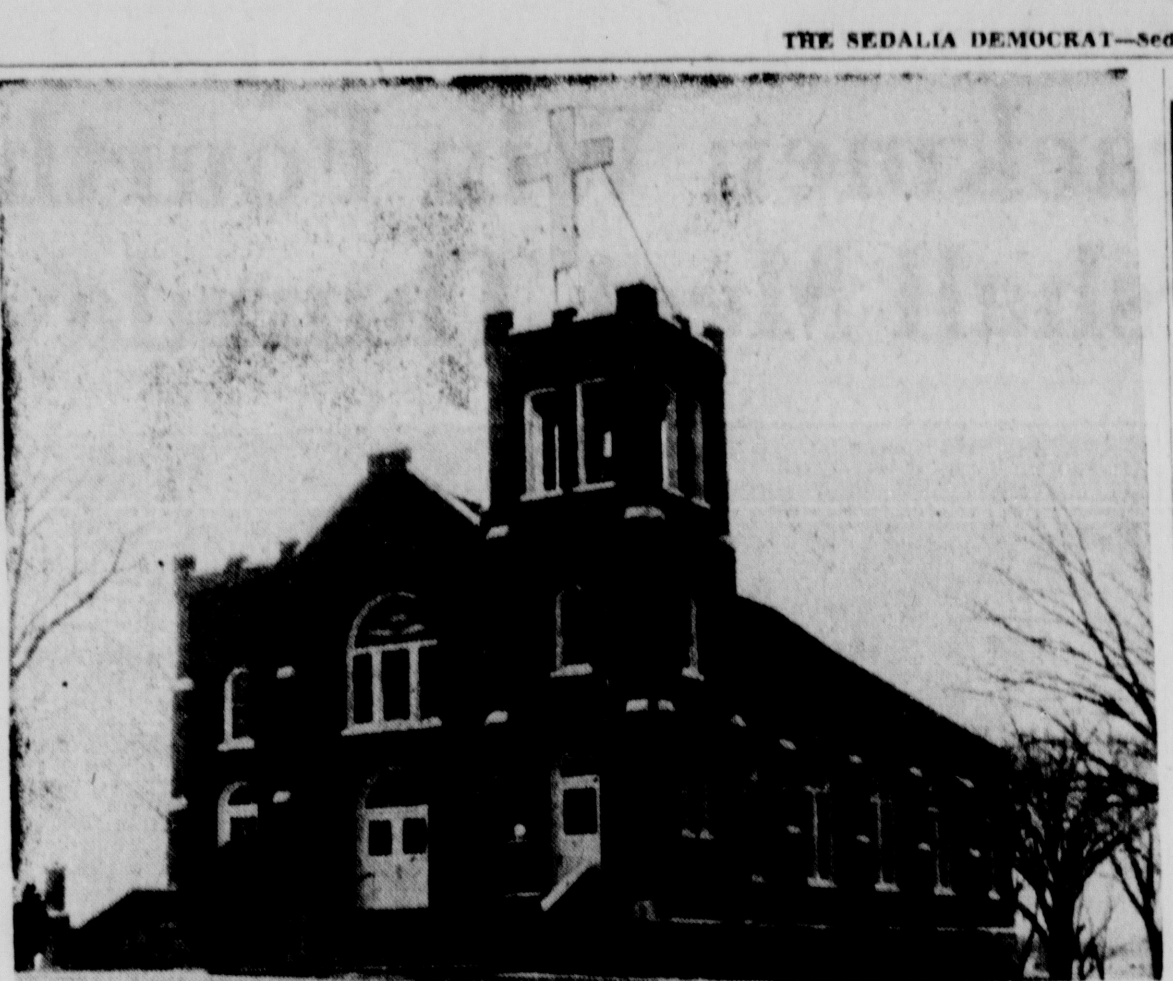

Sunday, the Young People will have charge of the morning worship at Quinn Chapel. The Junior Choir will sing, and the prayer, scripture lesson, decalogue, and announcements, will be given by the Young People of the church. Pastor W. H. Hickman will preach a special sermon for the Young People from the subject, "What Do You Have In Your Hand?" At 6 p.m. Mrs. Lilah Herndon, who is a contestant in the popularity contest sponsored by the Spirit of Allen Club, will sponsor the Alpha and Omega Singers in a program at the church.

These singers are local persons, and have made quite a name for themselves in rendering musical programs in and out of the city. The public may attend this program.

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION—The congregation of the Zion Lutheran Church in Lincoln will celebrate the 100th birthday of the church organization in ceremonies May 3. The above building was constructed in 1925. It is about one-half mile north of the city, west of Highway 65.

On Birthday, May 3 Zion Lutheran Church, Lincoln, To Hold Centennial Celebration

Zion Lutheran Church of Lincoln is planning the celebration of the 100th anniversary of its organization on May 3. In the forties of last century divine services had been conducted in the Lincoln community in private homes and even in barns. These services were led by pastors of Immanuel Lutheran Church east of Cole Camp. Because of the extreme poverty of the people and also their small number, it was altogether out of the question to build a church or chapel at this time. This goal was not reached until 1839, when a church building 24x36x12 feet was dedicated amid great rejoicing. Early in that year the people had also effected the organization of the congregation, calling themselves "Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church." Even in these years of abject poverty these courageous people managed to provide a Christian Day School for their children, even though it was only for three days a week during the winter months. Conditions were gradually improving when the unhappy Civil War broke out and rocked the country to its very foundations. Also Zion congregation suffered deeply as a result of it. After the return of peace things gradually returned to normal, and in the year 1867 the Rev. Reinhold Koehler was installed as the first resident pastor of Zion. By 1878, the first church had proven to be altogether too small, and a new and more imposing building was dedicated. In 1896 the first school house was built. Until this time school had been conducted in the church building. Candidate Hilger was the first teacher to serve the congregation. In the succeeding years the congregation continued to grow and expand, until the second church gradually proved to be too small and inadequate. Finally, in 1925, the present imposing structure was dedicated. It is truly a beautiful building.

S-C Trackmen Win Fourth In Marshall Meet Thursday

Record Set In Half Of 14 Events

Raytown Wins; Tigers, Marshall, Mexico Place High

The Smith-Cotton track team placed fourth in a red hot eight-team field in the Missouri Valley Relays at Marshall Thursday afternoon. New records were established in seven of the 14 events, with the power-packed Raytown squad winning the meet with 67 points. Smith-Cotton, Marshall and Mexico finally coming out with 33 points to 32 for Marshall and 31 for Smith-Cotton. Excelsior Springs finished fifth with 13 points, Fulton sixth with 12½, Chillicothe seventh with 12, and Moberly finished last with nine.

Five firsts and a tie for first was won by Raytown, four firsts were won by Mexico, three firsts by Marshall and one first and a tie for first was won by the Tigers, which just about spelled the outcome of the meet as far as these teams were concerned. Smith-Cotton's lone victory came in the shotput when B. C. Poynter bested the field with a fine 47 foot 7¼ inch heave. Gary Holderman, S-C pole vaulter, came through with a three-way tie for first with a vault of 10 feet three inches. Holderman narrowly missed winning the event when on his second and third tries at 11 feet two inches he slightly skimmed the bar, barely enough to displace it. Holderman's 10-11 represents his best time in the event.

Smith-Cotton's strength was in the second and third places the Tigers were able to win. Jack Benner soared 20 feet 1½ inches in the broad jump to capture second, the Sedalia mile relay team took second in that event behind Raytown's record breaking performance of 3:34.8. The Tigers clipped it off in 3:37.7. Clell Funnell placed third in the 180 yard hurdles with a fine 2:17 effort. Dale Maggard tossed the shot 45 feet 3¼ inches for third, Dennis Houk rounded the 800 yard run in 2:08.1—his season's best—for third, and the Tiger 880 relay men turned in a nifty 1:36.2, barely missing the Smith-Cotton record of 1:35.6, in placing fourth. Marshall won the event with a new Relays record of 1:34. Raytown was second with a 1:34.4 and Fulton took third in 1:34.5. Jack Benner ran a fine anchor lap in the 880 relay in zipping the distance in a swift 22.9 seconds for the final 220 yards.

Ronnie Jones placed fifth in the shotput with a toss of 44 feet 3¼ inches, he placed fifth in the discus with a 124 foot throw. Dennis Houk, turning in his fastest mile of the year in 4:47, could do no better than fifth in such fast competition. Raytown's Titus set a new standard in that event with a smashing performance of 4:41. Clifford Chappell, also of S-C, turned in a fast 4:47.6, only to finish sixth.

The real race of the day, as far as the Tigers were concerned, was the mile relay. The Smith-Cotton quartet of Doug Gilpin, James Hausam, Melvin Brown and Bob Vedder, owning a season's best of 3:41.6 up until Thursday, came within a fraction of shattering the Smith-Cotton record with a 3:37.7 haul. This mark is the best time recorded this year by any Central Missouri team and came within just four-tenths of a second short of the 3:37.3 record established for Smith-Cotton in 1954. Paired up with the fast Raytown team, which boasts two 10 second men on their team, Doug Gilpin legged a fine opening quarter but was short of the Raytown man by about four yards. Sophomore James Hausam of S-C grabbed the baton from Gilpin and after a fierce 440-yard dash of dueling with Raytown's No. 2 man, made up the four-yard loss and gave Mel Brown an even hand-off with Russ Coker, who had earlier won the open 440 in 51.3 seconds. It was at this point that the Tigers probably lost the race. Raytown's No. 2 man, Coker, veered to his right, bumping Brown enough to cause him to break stride and at the same time allow Coker to gain a five-yard advantage over Brown at the start of the third lap. Brown at this point opened up with a tremendous burst of speed that saw him catch Coker coming off the first turn and race him stride

FOUR CMRA MODIFIED STOCK CARS piled-up in this spectacular accident in the first race of the season and the months of planning and working for the 1959 racing season went out the window for Sedalia Harold Otten. This crash took place on the first turn of Sportsman's Speedway just after starter Al Hall had given the field the green flag to start a heat race. Blackwater's Bob Fenical in 3-F wound-up atop Shorty Pace's 21, as seen at the right. Otten got the worst end of the mix-up, being hit by both Fenical and Pace. His car was demolished. Junior Knox of Slater, driving 4-K, was the other driver involved. Luckily, no one was injured.

Never a Fatality

Many Spectacular Crashes During Nine Racing Years

In nine seasons of racing there have been many spectacular accidents in CMRA racing, but never a fatality. The drivers deserve a large part of the credit for this splendid record, but the excellent safety rules of the Association rate mention.

At stride down the backstretch. At the 300-yard mark and still at Coker's side, Brown was forced to fall in behind the swift Raytown runner on the final curve. Coming off the final curve Coker opened up with a seven-yard lead over the already overextended Brown and gave the Raytown anchor man, Thompson, who placed second in the open 440 in 51.5, a lead over Bob Vedder, S-C's anchor man. Vedder, still not up to par due to illness last week, ran his leg with a respectable 54 seconds to bring the Sedalians home in 3:37.7.

New records set in the Relays, other than those previously mentioned, were 10.2 in the 100-yard dash by Cooper of Mexico, 22.4 in the 220-yard dash by Cooper of Mexico, 3:34.8 in the mile relay by Raytown, 6 feet 1 inch in the high jump by Williams of Mexico and 144 feet 4 inches in the discus by Swinger of Marshall.

Don Jordan Meets Akins In Title Bout

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Don Jordan, a young champion on the way up, pits his speed and skill against Virgil (Honeybear) Akins, a veteran slugger who may be past his peak, in a twice-postponed welterweight championship fight tonight.

The oddsmakers call the fight even—5 to 6 and take your pick. This might be because half of them saw Akins destroy Vince Martinez for the title a year ago, and the other half watched him badly outclassed by Jordan in Los Angeles Dec. 5.

The fight will start at 10 p.m., EST, and will be nationally televised. The 31-year-old Akins and his handlers must be haunted by the fact the St. Louis fighter has looked bad in all three of his fights since he blasted Martinez for the crown.

Both Jordan and Akins have the added incentive of probably big future paydays.

Jordan's manager, Don Neseth, said Jordan likely will meet Art Aragon in Los Angeles if he defeats Akins.

Akins could gain a match with ex-champ Carmen Basilio if he wins and looks good doing it. St. Louis promoter Sam Muchnick is talking of a Akins-Basilio outdoor fight in Busch Stadium.

Jordan, a 24-year-old part-Apache Indian who was one of 19 children, has come fast. Only a year ago he was regarded as merely a big lightweight. He is anxious to cash in on his crown.

Akins sorely needs this fight and another big payday. His future, which looked so bright after the Martinez bombing a year ago, will be dim if he loses this time.

No one questions Akins' punching power. But all his big knock-outs—over Jimmy Beecham, Sugar Hart, Tony DeMarco twice and Isaac Logart—came before his Martinez title victory.

Neseth is concerned that Akins will again use his head to lead as he did at Los Angeles.

"Akins should put a glove on his head—he uses it like a billy goat," said Neseth. Eddie Yawitz, co-manager of Akins, said he isn't concerned with styles because Virgil is mentally ready and certain to get a knockout.

"Jordan can't last the 15 rounds," he said. Muchnick expects a crowd of about 7,500 and gate of more than $50,000 in Kiel Auditorium.

Select Array of Golf Pros Led by Souchak

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—A select array of 26 golf professionals—swinging away in the second round of the $46,620 Tournament of Champions today, with Mike Souchak firmly in front.

The big fellow from Grossinger, N. Y., clipped six strokes off par 36-72 as he toured the Desert Inn Country Club course in 34-32-66.

Two strokes back was unheralded John McMullin of Alameda, Calif., with a pair of 34s for 68.

Two other dark-horses, Ernie Vossler of Midland, Tex., and veteran Pete Cooper of Lakeland, Fla., were tied at 69, while such pretournament hotshots as Gene Littler and Art Wall Jr., were down the line—though hardly out of contention.

Littler, landed in a five-way tie at 71, while Wall was even par 72. Deadlocked at 70 were Arnold Palmer, whose round was improved by a hole-in-one on the 613-yard 16th hole, and Julius Boros.

Four Leading Field In North-South Golf

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Jack Nicklaus, a 19-year-old, and three men in their 40s comprised the semifinal field today in the North and South Amateur Golf Tournament.

Nicklaus, of Columbus, Ohio, who also is a Walker Cup player, engaged Bob Cochran of St. Louis, 45-year-old paper company salesman.

Two insurance men, Gene Andrews, 45, of Pacific Palisades, Calif., and Jack Penrose, 44, of Miami, Fla., met in the other 18-hole match.

Survivors play over 36 holes Saturday for the title.

Yanks Not In AL First Place Yet

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Is this the year the American League has a pennant race?

Could be. Two weeks have passed and the New York Yankees haven't been in first place yet. Fact is, they're tied for second and trail Cleveland's hatchet-swinging Indians by three games.

What's more, Bob Turley, the Yankees' right-handed ace, has won but once in three decisions, and the world champions' pitching staff has produced just three complete games (two by Whitey Ford) in nine starts.

This is hardly enough to suggest that the AL is going to have a new champ for the first time since 1954, when another band of Indians out-ran the Yankees. But it is enough to have Manager Casey Stengel grumbling to his Yanks that he told 'em so.

At the moment, it looks as though it might be downright tough. The Indians, easily the most improved club in the league, made it nine out of 10 by once more thumping Detroit's timid Tigers, 10-4, Thursday. The Yankees, meanwhile, were defeated 3-2 at Washington as the Senators beat Turley for the first time in four years. Chicago's idle White Sox gained a share of second with New York, while Baltimore took fourth place by turning back Boston 8-7.

In the National League, three home runs gave Philadelphia a 4-3 victory over Milwaukee's first place Braves, the Chicago Cubs smacked St. Louis 6-1 and Cincinnati defeated Pittsburgh 5-2 in the only games scheduled.

Turley, who had won 12 in a row from the Nats since May 30, 1955, was handed his second loss of the season by Bobby Richardson's error in a three-run Washington seventh. Turley, who allowed only three hits, had no-hit the Senators for five innings and had a one-hit shutout until the seventh, when the error gave Washington two unearned runs. Reno Bertoia's single counted the clincher.

Russ Kemmerer won his second for the Nats, although giving up eight hits including Mickey Mantle's second homer, and needing Tex Clevenger's two hitless innings of relief.

The Indians, who won in '54 while setting an AL record with 111 victories, made it five in a row over the Tigers by sweeping the three-game set at Detroit.

Billy Martin's two-on homer off reliever Jim Bunning put it away for the Tribe in a five-run second inning. Winless Ray Narleski, traded by Cleveland to Detroit along with Don Mossi for Martin, lost his fourth as the Tigers stumbled through their ninth defeat in 10 starts.

Dick Brodowski (2-0) was the winner in relief of Jim Perry, who was making his major league debut. Brodowski took over in a three-run Tiger fifth and blanked Detroit on three hits the rest of the way. Brodowski hasn't given up a run in 18 2-3 innings of relief since the Tribe brought him up from the minors last season.

Willie Tasby, a favorite for rookie-of-the-year honors in the AL, homered and drove in four runs for the Orioles, singling home the winning run as Baltimore completed a comeback with three runs in the eighth. Ernie Johnson, the Milwaukee castoff, won his second in relief. Leo Kiely (1-1) lost it in relief.

Thursday's quarter-finals. He lost the last four holes, but outlasted Dog Essig of Indianapolis and LSU, the 1957 public links champion, 1 up.

speed up this portion of the program and the opening race of the seven event program will be underway by 8 p. m.

All drivers will draw for position in time trials. Each will be permitted two trials, one each and then one each again in reverse order. Any driver spinning out on the first trial will return to the pits and wait for the second trial. If he spins out again he'll be started last in the slow heat.

The Thunderbowl track has been put in excellent condition during the past two weeks. Improvements include a new black gumbo clay surface which replaces the rock-filled clay track that drivers moaned about in 1958. The 3,000 seat bleachers have been repainted.

ed and an exit has been constructed from the top of the bleachers at the radio booth. The parking lot, which accommodates 1,000 cars has been graded and leveled.

A field of about 40 drivers is expected to compete in the program, including all of the top performers of the CMRA.

Officials for the race are: Al Hall, Sedalia, starter; Jewell Kidwell, Sedalia, scorer; John Blain, Sedalia, chief timer; Clyde Mitchell, Marshall, pit steward; Chet Dooley, Marshall, safety inspector and Milton Heldt and Orville Pegg, both of Higginsville, and Joe Martin of Hughesville, assistants.

John Hughes and Harold Douglas of Marshall will announce the races over the public address system.

The Thunderbowl Speedway is located four miles southwest of Sedalia on Route B, usually called the Green Ridge Road. From Sedalia, fans can drive south on Highway 65 to 32nd Street and turn right at the MFA Service Station.

Mrs. Kirk Douglas Has Happy Birthday
PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—The giant cake was wheeled in. Five feet high it stood, and four feet across. Emblazoned in big letters across it were the words, "Happy Birthday, Anne."
The band played, the 16 guests oh-ed and ah-ed. All was delightful, except for one thing. Kirk wasn't there.
But wait. My goodness, there he was. Climbed right out of the top of the cake, he did.
Douglas was supposed to be in Hollywood filming "Spartacus." The plaster of paris cake, used as a stage prop, looked real enough to give his wife quite a start when the actor suddenly emerged from it.

Hal Boyle's Column Middle-Aged Feller Has Some Wonderful Memories
By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — When a middle-aged feller gets to feeling sorry for what the young fellers missed, he remembers:
How much more girls looked like girls then.
How much closer they built stairs in those days, so that you couldn't resist the impulse to go up them two at a time.

Girls who wore shoes that could walk across subway gratings.
Horses that drew wagons instead of spectators.
The wonderful world of H. L. Mencken. To be sophisticated you had to sneer at anything less obvious than a paycheck, and if you had a regular paycheck you were too ashamed to sneer at anything.

Q. Name A Beer So Good You Can Tell it BLINDFOLDED!

A. COUNTRY CLUB Pilsener Beer

Here's one beer that dares say: You can taste the difference—the better-quality difference!—blindfolded. We challenge you!—fill one glass with your regular beer, one with Country Club Pilsener.

Shut your eyes and taste! You can't mistake that richer, clean Country Club taste that's so like Old-World beers, in its body and smoothness, plus that robust, satisfying hop flavor that comes through without bitterness or "bite."

Make that "side by side" test today—we'll leave it up to you!

Give Country Club Pilsener These Other Easy Tests:		Country Club Pilsener	The Beer you've been drinking true beer color	Compare the color and clarity against a light background. Country Club Pilsener is a deeper golden color than all modern-type beer tested. Proof of its richer, fuller body.	✓	?
full body and head	Country Club Pilsener is brewed with more and better quality malt than in general use today. This old original formula of Michael Karl Goetz gives a rich, creamy head that lasts and lasts. It laces the glass all the way down... as good beer traditionally should.	✓	?
make the PENCIL TEST	Ask your bartender to draw a glass of Country Club Pilsener. When the head of foam satisfies you, place an unsharpened pencil vertically in the center of glass. Amazing! Note the pencil stands straight—proof of Country Club's rich, creamy head, as compared with other beers. Try it... you'll sell yourself!	✓	?

Ronald Reagan Shows You Have to Adapt to Survive

Darwin's Idea in Hollywood

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD —(NEA)— Pre-TV Hollywood, lest we forget, had its male Cinderellas, too.

Handsome young fellows whose personalities attracted the attention of talent scouts who roamed the country "But I don't know anything about acting," were protests the talent scouts knew by heart.

"Don't worry son," they would reply. "You will be a big star."

They came to Hollywood by almost every train and plane in those golden days to smile and show their profiles in screen tests. Some went back home. They didn't photograph well. Some became stars — and never learned how to act. And some learned how to act while becoming stars.

Ronald Reagan was one of those who learned

He came to Hollywood in 1937. He was writing a sports column on a newspaper in Des Moines, Iowa, and broadcasting sports events on the radio there. A Warner Bros. studio talent scout heard his voice on the radio, and then liked the profile he found behind a newspaper office desk.

"A screen test in Hollywood," young Reagan gulped. "But I don't know how. . ."

The talent scout stepped on his line, fast. "I know, son," he said, "you don't know how to act. So who cares? You will be a big star."

The studio didn't care, either. Reagan photographed well and they gave him a contract, the usual publicity buildup, and the lead in his first movie. But he was one of those sharper, brighter lads who did care about learning to act.

It was a prologue, in a way, to the Ronald Reagan of today—TV host and occasional star of now-in-its-fifth-year "GE Theater" and roving ambassador of goodwill for the sponsor.

Five years ago, when Hollywood became unglued because of TV, many stars of Reagan's era faded away when they refused to adapt themselves to the change. They would wait, they said, for the big movie roles sure to come after the novelty of TV had worn away.

But the novelty didn't wear away and the star system came to an end and the newcomers

RONALD REAGAN: Being able to adapt to a changing Hollywood has given him many of the good things in life, including a ranch on which he raises horses.

from TV took over the big movies — and the studios.

But as he had adapted himself to newspaper work, to radio announcing and then to movie acting, Reagan knew he had to adapt himself to TV. Not in a series, though.

"I turned down every series now on the air," he laughed. "I didn't want to be a weekly host. I didn't want to act in a weekly show. I wanted to have a hand in my own career. Then I was offered 'GE Theater.' I would be the host but I could act, too. But only when the story was right for me. The show answered every TV argument I had ever raised."

And then, he adapted himself to the off-camera ambassador of goodwill role for the sponsor. He enjoys touring factories and making speeches for chambers of commerce. He says:

"Things change and we must change with it.

"I didn't know one end of a camera from the other when I got here in 1937, but I knew I had to learn and I kept my eyes and ears open. Movies were filled with wonderful old character people in those days who knew more about acting than the directors. I listened to them and they helped me.

"A famous director was ready to murder me one day. I just couldn't understand his way of telling me what he wanted from me in a scene. Then an old lady, working as an extra, called me over and said, 'Son, do it this way.' Then she explained to me what the director couldn't explain and I went right back into the scene and played it her way."

After saying, "Cut" at the end of the scene, the director laughed: "I knew you would finally get what I've been telling you."

And Reagan still remembers: "I didn't tell him that an old actress, working as an extra, knew more about directing than he did."

TOURING MOPAC SHOPS — L. V. Hobbs, superintendent of the Missouri Pacific Railroad Co., points out some of the features of the Sedalia MoPac shops to visiting Brazilian railroad officials. The officials are touring the entire MoPac system, accompanied by Hobbs. They are here to pick up technical information to be used in a railroad modernization program under way in their homeland.

Shown left to right are J. C. F. Linhares, superintendent of transportation, Cia Vale do Rio Doco, Rio de Janeiro; J. S. Simon, superintendent of the Sedalia shops; G. C. Knechtel, chief of the Second Division of the Rede Riacao Parana Santa Caterina Railway; and M. Pessoa, technical consultant for the superintendent of the Leopoldina Railway. Touring Entire System

Brazilian Railroad Men Visit Local MoPac Shops on Tour

Three Brazilian railroad officials, on a three-month tour of railroads and railroad equipment manufacturing firms, toured the Missouri Pacific shops in Sedalia Wednesday.

The Brazilians were accompanied on the local tour by L. V. Hobbs, MoPac superintendent from Kansas City, and J. S. Simon, superintendent of the shops in Sedalia. They visited the repair shops, offices and other repair and maintenance facilities during their stay here.

G. A. Knechtel, chief of the Second Division of Transportation, Rede Viacao Parana Santa Caterina Railway, said the group was particularly impressed with Mo-

Pac roadbed maintenance. They had a good chance to inspect the roadbed at close quarters—they are doing most of their traveling in the company's "Hi-Rail," an automobile suitable for travel on rails or on the highway.

The other two officials are M. Pessoa, technical consultant for the superintendent of the Leopoldina Railway; and J. C. F. Linhares, superintendent of the transportation division, Cia Vale do Rio Doco, Rio de Janeiro.

The group is touring the entire MoPac line. Monday and Tuesday they were in Kansas City, arriving in Sedalia from Kansas City by Hi-Rail Wednesday. They used the same mode of transportation to travel to Jefferson City Wednesday afternoon.

The tour is sponsored by the International Cooperative Administration, or Point 4 program of technical assistance between nations. Last year, A. F. Scott, chief clerk at the Sedalia shops, said the shops were hosts to a group from Mexico, and a few years ago, a representative of Chinese Nationalist railroads stayed and worked for some time to learn more about American Railroad operation.

The group is here to gain knowledge of the American system of operating and maintaining railroads, and to carry that knowledge back to Brazil and apply it to a new program of modernization now under way there. They will train other officials, who in turn are expected to pass the training on to their employees.

All three Brazilians on the tour are civil engineers, and graduates of Brazilian universities. They arrived in the United States, at New York, on March 26. They spent two weeks with the Chicago & Great Western Railroad, staying at the headquarters city of Oelwein, Ia.

They will tour MoPac for two weeks, then go to the Frisco Railroad.

The most modern thing in the line of railroading, the group agreed, is the multi-million dollar

"hump" yards in the East Bottom yard in Kansas City. "We never saw anything like it," said Knechtel. All three speak excellent English.

After the Frisco tour, the group will go to the railroad equipment factories. They expressed enthusiasm for the welcome they have received in Sedalia, and all other American cities they have visited.

"We have learned a lot, have enjoyed the trip, and feel that this visit is one of the biggest and best things to happen to our railroad modernization program," Knechtel stated.

Ike Stresses Importance of Sound Dollar

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower put new stress Thursday on the importance of a sound dollar. He said a balanced federal budget could help immensely.

Eisenhower spoke to two business groups—delegates from 50 nations—at a meeting of the International Chamber of Commerce and the National Assn. of Manufacturers.

He told the international group that government shares with them an intense concern in many matters. He listed these:

"Sound money, high employment, rising standards of living, the movement and marketing of goods and services—all these and more."

To the NAM, he extended his thanks for what its members have done "in helping cut down federal expenditures, and therefore sustaining a sound and good American dollar."

He said a balanced budget—which calls for spending within income—creates confidence among Americans and is of great interest to other nations which are concerned about America's ability to keep up its world leadership face to face with the Soviet Union.

Refuse Governor's Request In Strike

Had Asked To Shutdown A Second Shift

Until Dispute Is Settled Over Jobs To Be Available

HENDERSON, N. C. (AP)—The president of the strike-plagued Harriet Henderson Cotton Mills refused Thursday to shut down his evening shift as requested by Gov. Luther H. Hodges.

John D. Cooper Jr. told the governor he feels this "would be an absolute surrender to force and violence."

Hodges, who had asked Cooper to suspend the shifts until the dispute is settled, wired Cooper in reply:

"Stopping the controversial second shift would not be based on surrender to violence but on your personal responsibility for the present difficulty and your responsibility to the public."

Cooper also disagreed with Hodges' statement of Wednesday that the company "intentionally or otherwise misled" negotiators about the number of jobs that would be available to strikers when the strike was settled.

This misunderstanding resulted this week in the worst violence of the five-month strike, with shots fired into the plants at night and fire bombs set off in the streets.

As usual, the scene was comparatively quiet Thursday afternoon when the day shift left and the second shift came on. The Highway Patrol, which has been here in large numbers since early Tuesday, confiscated a gun from a worker going into the north plant. But strikers continued to protest that other workers were carrying weapons.

The strike, marked by violence since nonstrikers began manning a first work shift Feb. 16, apparently was settled last week with the governor's help. Then new violence broke out when only 30 of the original 1,000 strikers were rehired for the second shift started Monday evening.

Highway patrolmen have been on hand to marshal workers into their cars when the evening shift left. Three cars were fired upon from ambush Wednesday night after leaving the plants, and the company claimed four workers inside the plants had been hurt slightly.

Hodges' telegram also said he was wiring the Textile Workers Union of America again about preventing violence. He said Wednesday he would hold the union's Carolinas director, Boyd Payton, personally responsible for any further violence.

Payton answered Hodges that although the union deplors the disorders "we cannot guarantee it will stop because we have no control over those responsible for it."

Clare Boothe Luce Given Approval As Brazil Ambassador

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee Thursday approved the nomination of Clare Boothe Luce as ambassador to Brazil, with Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) casting the only dissenting vote.

Chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) said the nomination of the 56-year-old playwright, former Republican congresswoman and ex-ambassador to Rome, will be called up in the Senate Monday for confirmation.

EARL MOUNTBATTEN TO BE BRITAIN'S DEFENSE CHIEF

LONDON (AP)—Earl Mountbatten of Burma, 58, admiral of the fleet and uncle of Queen Elizabeth II, bowed out of the British navy Thursday after 46 years active service.

YOUTH CRIME TREBLES IN AMSTERDAM, NETHERLAND

AMSTERDAM, Netherlands (AP)—Police Inspector C. Verbiest told reporters this week that crime among youth had trebled here in the last six years. He said 1,700 boys and girls were arrested last year on charges including 1,068 thefts.

In Strong Position for Conference

Upheavals in Russia Serve To Strengthen Khrushchev

By HAROLD K. MILKS Associated Press Staff Writer

Westerners who regard political churning in several Soviet states as signs of trouble for Nikita Khrushchev are apt to find they have been engaged in wishful thinking.

Most of the upheavals were inspired by the Soviet Union's top boss, rather than resulting from any possible criticism of the man or his program. Khrushchev is simply building up his local political fences and weeding out men he regards as weak either in performance or personal loyalty.

Latest of a series of upheavals among the Soviet states came in Byelorussia where a new premier was named and shifts made in the party lineup. But veteran observers in Moscow said the move strengthened rather than weakened the man who replaced Stalin.

Nikita Khrushchev approaches the May 11 meeting of foreign ministers on German problems in by far the strongest personal position among leaders from either side of the cold war barriers.

Since taking over full governmental as well as party powers, he has ruthlessly eliminated any possible critics or opponents. He used the attack on the "antiparty group" to get rid of several, including such old line party stalwarts as Malenkov, Molotov, Kaganovich and Bulganin.

He skillfully split the nation's outstanding military leaders to pave the way for ouster of a national hero, Marshal Georgi Zhukov.

Veteran diplomats in Moscow scoff at the possibility of any trouble for Khrushchev at home at this stage.

There is opposition to the stocky hard-talking leader and some of his policies, even within the powerful Communist party Presidium of 15, they say. But those who oppose either the man or his policies do so privately.

Khrushchev demonstrated his contempt for any possible rivalry in the Soviet hierarchy by permitting Mikhail Suslov—frequently mentioned abroad as a threat to the present ruler's position—to lead a Soviet delegation to England recently. Suslov's pro-Khrushchev behavior abroad was obvious.

"Khrushchev has nothing to worry about today," was the way one Western diplomat summed up the situation. "He is the boss. He makes the rules and the others follow them. I don't think even a major political setback or a crop failure in the virgin lands would shake him much these days."

When Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko goes to Geneva for the May meeting of foreign ministers, he will spend a lot of time on the telephone. Khrushchev will be on the other end of the line.

"Whatever Gromyko says on any subject, where he talks hard or soft," said an oldtime diplomat in Moscow, "the voice may be his but the words will be Nikita's."

Observers have noted a steady tendency since Khrushchev reached the top. More and more, they say, Nikita is taking over the reins of governmental and party activity. More and more it is Khrushchev—and Nikita Khrushchev alone—whose name appears day after day on the front page of Pravda.

Red China Warns Not To Intervene

Says Shooting All But Over in Tibet In Attack on India

TOKYO (AP)—Red China sharply warned Indian, U. S. and other critics Thursday against intervention in the Tibetan rebellion. It coupled a fresh attack on India, host to the refugee Dalai Lama, with a declaration that the shooting is all but over in Tibet.

The Chinese Communist command in Lhasa, capital of Tibet, claimed it has crushed Tibetan strongholds in the mountains, wiped out the bulk of the rebellion and killed, wounded or captured nearly 2,000 rebels.

Red troops are mopping up the scattered remnants, it said, and "they will be wiped out in the near future."

A sidelight came in a dispatch issued in Taipei, Formosa, by the Taitao news agency, which is run by the Chinese Nationalist Justice Ministry and claims underground contracts on the mainland. The dispatch said the Reds are shipping 250,000 reinforcements to Tibet and that 70,000 of these have already been moved in by airlift.

Indian Prime Minister Nehru and the Dalai Lama himself have insisted that the young god-king wrote his April 18 statement at Tezpur denouncing Communist rule in Tibet. But Peiping insisted it was "even more obvious" someone else did it.

A statement issued by the Dalai Lama's entourage at Mussoorie, which insisted that he was the author, was read "by Tibetan rebels who abducted the Dalai Lama to India," declared a commentary of the New China News Agency.

The propaganda barrage burst on the eve of the first conference of Nehru, 69, and the 23-year-old Dalai Lama since the latter's flight across the Tibetan border three weeks ago to sanctuary in India.

Nehru left New Delhi Thursday for Mussoorie, a Himalayan hill station. The Dalai Lama is established there in a three-story mansion set in 55 acres of grounds surrounded—for his protection—by barbed wire and a corps of security officers.

Case Is Officially Closed

Colonel Is Fined, Reprimanded, Transferred for Bumping GI's

TOKYO (AP)—The U. S. Air Force has slapped a fine, reprimand, and transfer on Lt. Col. Charles Platt Jr., whose rush for a Hawaiian vacation delayed seven servicemen on a flight to the bedside of sick relatives in the United States.

The case was officially closed Thursday with the announcement that Platt had forfeited $340 pay, been relieved as commander of the Tachikawa Air Force passenger terminal outside Tokyo, and posted for other duty as an aftermath of the mixup March 26.

One of the seven enlisted men was S-Sgt. Paul S. Cain, 1203 South Stewart, called home by the critical illness with pneumonia of his nine-month-old daughter, Terri Jo, at Whiteman Air Force Base hospital. Terri Jo was released from the hospital two days after Sgt. Cain arrived home.

Sgt. Cain left Sedalia Monday night for San Francisco, returning to his duties on Okinawa.

The mixup resulted when Platt, 49, of Brooklyn, N.Y., belatedly but successfully set about getting seats for himself and his family on a Honolulu-bound DC6B for an outing in Hawaii.

The Air Force said Platt had been completely cleared of bumping GI's on emergency leave from the plane to make room for his family, but that he bothered the terminal staff and contributed to the confusion that caused them to be left behind.

One of those dropped from the flight complained to Lt. Gen. Robert W. Burns, U.S. supreme commander in Japan. Burns recalled the plane after it had flown nearly 150 miles on its journey to Hawaii, removed the Platt family, and seated six of the servicemen aboard. The seventh, who had left the field, flew home the next day.

The Air Force disclosed the plane had to jettison 1,650 gallons of gasoline worth $333 to reland safely but said it was just a coincidence that the figure was virtually identical to Platt's forfeiture, equivalent to half a month's pay.

A new assignment has not yet been set for Platt. He was on a three-day golfing trip with fellow officers and could not be reached for comment on the punishment,

But John Wayne Not Involved in Plot

Actor Reportedly Source Of Revolution Leader's Funds

PANAMA (AP)—Officials said Thursday Roberto Arias, hunted by police, then expelled from Panama Wednesday, she flew to New York.

Arias himself has not been caught. National Guardsmen continued hunting along the Santa Clara coastal area for the rebels.

They hastened to add that Wayne was in no way involved in the supposed plot and they only wanted to show that Arias handled large sums of money.

Wayne himself expressed amazement that Arias could be mixed up in any revolutionary activities. The actor told newsmen at his home in Encino, Calif., that Arias had been his friend "off and on" for 20 years and they were associated in a shrimp company along with other stockholders.

Officials said they had found a letter from Wayne to Arias at Arias' beach cottage near Santa Clara, about 75 miles west of Panama City.

Signed "Duke," Wayne's nickname, the letter contained an interoffice memo to Wayne from Robert D. Weesner reporting Arias had been given or drawn against Wayne's account a total of $525,000 since Nov. 19, 1957.

Santa Clara is the site of Arias' family estate, and the government claims he landed there Sunday with a band of 10 rebels. The handsome, 41-year-old lawyer-diplomat's family has long been a power in Panamanian politics.

LONDON'S FIRST HELIPORT OPENED OVER THE THAMES

LONDON (AP)—London's first heliport was opened Thursday. It is built on piles over the Thames River.

First flights were on an experimental basis. Regular passenger service over the heavily populated capital will await introduction of twin-engined helicopters to provide maximum safety.

Margot Fonteyn, was questioned by police, then expelled from Panama Wednesday. She flew to New York.

Arias himself has not been caught. National Guardsmen continued hunting along the Santa Clara coastal area for the rebels.

Son Treated Well, Parents Are Assured

Army Vet Held In Cuba For Training Nicaraguan Exiles

WICHITA (AP)—Parents of Logan Eugene Hall, 29-year-old army veteran in custody in Cuba, were assured by telephone from Havana Thursday that he is being well treated.

Clyde Wendelken, attorney for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hall, Wichita, said he talked to James E. Brown, consul general at the U. S. Embassy in the Cuban capital.

"My overall impression was that the embassy understood all implications of the case and is on its toes," Wendelken said.

"They are interested in the same thing that Mr. and Mrs. Hall are interested in—making absolutely certain for the boy and the country that he receives just treatment."

An Associated Press dispatch from Havana reported Hall still was in custody Thursday. He is being held at Camp Libertad, military headquarters of the Castro government.

Cuban officials said Hall was training a group enlisted by Nicaraguan exiles. They said he talked of dropping them into Nicaragua from planes. His training consisted of having the men jump from second story windows.

The officials reported Hall planned to have his trainees wear black uniforms and black hoods and called them "The Shadows."

Wendelken said at Wichita he understood Hall may either be deported or tried.

"He is not presently being held in a jail cell. He apparently is in a detention area, and apparently happy and treated well."

Embassy officials have talked to Hall several times since he was taken in custody, Wendelken said. He added that Hall's father, with him when he called the embassy in Havana, was "pleased that Loran was being treated fairly, and that the American Embassy was affording his boy protection."

Embassy officials agreed to notify him or the parents "if there should be any serious development in the case that would call for their further action," he said.

BRITISH CONSUL IN KANSAS CITY TO RETURN HOME

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A. J. Evans, British consul here since 1956, announced Thursday his tour of duty in Kansas City will end May 7.

At that time, he said, he will return to England for probable retirement. His place here will be taken by George Littler, at present serving at the British consulate-general in New Orleans.

Littler is expected here about the middle of June.

Three Killed Five Injured In K. C. Blast

Weed Killer Tank Explodes Causing Spectacular Blaze

KANSAS CITY (AP)—An explosion leveled a block-long one-story building of the Thompson-Hayward Chemical Co., plant Thursday.

Three men were killed, and five were injured.

Dead were James M. Lewis, negro, 28 years old, Kansas City, Kan., and Walter L. Evans, Kansas City, Mo., and Otis J. Young of Liberty, Mo.

The injured were Ronnie D. Tyrrell, 21, Kansas City, Kan., Guy M. Stokley, 43, Floyd A. Lines, Jerry L. King, and Herman Hall, all of Kansas City, Mo. Tyrrell and Stokley were reported in serious condition.

A fireman was injured slightly in a traffic accident en route to the fire.

The explosion occurred in a tank containing 3,000 gallons of weed killer and destroyed seven other tanks. The resulting spectacular blaze, on a high hilltop five miles southwest of the Kansas City, Mo., business district, was visible over most of the city.

For a time the fire threatened to spread to half a dozen other tanks, but after two and one-half hours firemen reported the fire was "contained," but would have to burn itself out.

The blast came just before the change of shifts. Robert Thompson, president of the company, said there normally would be five men at work in the building at the time.

Thompson identified the missing as Jim Lewis and a man he could identify only as "Evans." He doubted they could have survived the blast.

Cause of the explosion was not determined immediately.

For a time the downtown area was covered by a cloud of dense smoke carried by a strong southwest wind.

The plant was located at Southwest Blvd., and Greystone Ave., just across the Missouri-Kansas state line from 29th and Southwest Blvd., in Kansas City, Mo. L. S. De Atley, vice president in charge of research and production, estimated the loss may reach a million dollars.

From Factual Viewpoint

Scientific Facts Explained
At Knife and Fork Meeting

Approximately 150 members of the Knife and Fork Club attended the last meeting of the season, which featured a demonstration of the mysteries of science by Glenn L. Morris of Madison, Wis. The meeting was held at the Bothwell Hotel Wednesday evening.

The demonstration stressed the importance of approaching problems of radiation, atomic energy and electronics from a factual viewpoint.

"People should get away from an ineffectual wishful thinking approach, and approach these problems with educated facts," he stated. During the demonstration, he showed that many scientific facts are not at all what they seem.

The speaker was introduced by

W. E. Bingaman, a new director of the organization.

He began the talk with a demonstration of an instrument which measures radiation — demonstrating a practical use by locating a radioactive golf ball. He told of his work in research at the University of Wisconsin at Madison; how radioactivity effects seeds and animals. He brought out that the disposal of radioactive waste materials from atomic plants is a great problem.

He followed with a demonstration of a solar battery, which takes energy from light, stores it and uses the stored energy for practical purposes. He pointed out that the energy deposited on an ordinary house roof in one day is equal to about 150 pounds of coal. Eleven per cent of this energy can be captured with solar batteries in use today, he stated.

Mrs. Kenneth Weinrich assisted in a demonstration of electromagnetics, and Dannie Muller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Muller, assisted in a demonstration of aircraft guidance radio beams. Morris explained the use of an old-time "earth induction" compass, the type used by Amelia Earhart on her fatal trip across the Pacific about 20 years ago, and stated that she had no chance, using the equipment of the day, of locating a small island in the Pacific.

In his closing remarks, Morris pointed out that he doubts if there will ever be an atomic war. "For the first time in history, a dictator can not send out his underlings to get shot. He knows that he himself will surely die. That is a great deterrent to war," he stated.

Preceding the demonstration, club members enjoyed a dinner. The invocation was given by past president A. H. Wilks. James E. Durely acted as master of ceremonies, and introduced new members, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Crippen, Judge and Mrs. C. Berry Elliott, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arensmeyer. He also introduced the hospitality committee, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Edwards, and Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Stonner, and guests Mr. and Mrs. Wilks, Mrs. Morris and Mrs. W. E. Bingaman.

Insurance Company
Observes Jubilee

With nearly $300 million of new sales in the first quarter of the year, Franklin Life Insurance Co., Springfield, Ill., registered its best production record in history. Paid business was 38.7 per cent ahead of 1958, according to Virgil Ragar, general agent, Sedalia.

The company is celebrating its Diamond Jubilee 75th Anniversary. Highlighting the first of several events scheduled during the year, President Chas. E. Becker gave a dinner last week with James Reston, diplomatic editor and Washington Bureau chief of the New York Times as featured speaker. More than 150 state officials, bankers and leading Illinois businessmen were honored guests.

An objective of $1 billion of new individual policy sales has been established by Franklin for 1959. According to an announcement issued by President Becker, the agency force is on schedule.

Wants Space Project
Under Single Agency

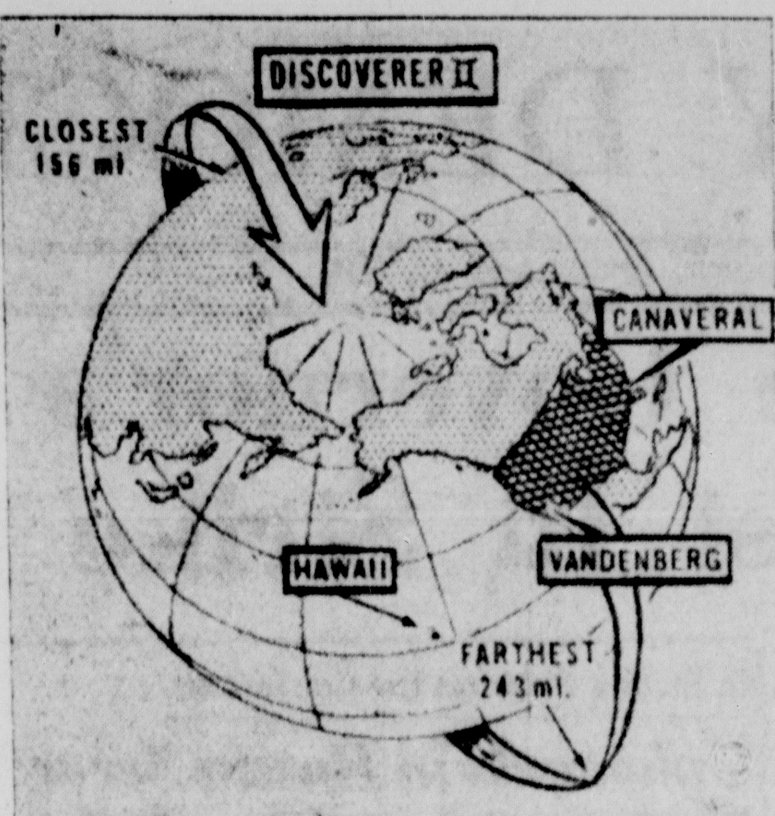

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy's research director wants the nation's space program put under a single agency—but not during this session of Congress.

Vice Adm. John T. Hayward, head of the Navy's research and development programs fired some strong criticism at the present set-up of separate civilian and military space agencies when he testified Wednesday before a congressional committee.

But he later said, "I certainly wouldn't change the law this session (of Congress)."

Hayward made his recommendations to a Senate Space Subcommittee headed by Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.).

DISCOVERER II IN ORBIT—This chart shows the orbit of Discoverer II satellite launched from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif. Scientists working against 900-1 odds hoped to recover an instrument package from the polar-orbiting satellite. The satellite was orbiting the earth every 90.84 minutes at a speed of more than 17,000 miles per hour, ranging from as far as 243 miles from earth and to as close as 156 miles. The recovery attempt was later cancelled. (NEA Telephoto)

New Optimist Club Planned;
Will Be a Breakfast Group

A new Optimist Club, which will be a breakfast club, is to be formed in Sedalia, and any man interested is asked to be present at a meeting which will be held at the Pacific Cafe at 7:30 a.m. Monday. The new club is being sponsored by the Sedalia Optimist Club.

It was brought out at the regular meeting of the Optimist Club Tuesday noon at Bothwell Hotel, that there are many men who could attend a breakfast meeting who would be unable to attend luncheon or dinner meetings.

Most Valuable
Qualities In Ability to Laugh

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A physician said Thursday that once a person loses his ability to laugh he is in danger of losing his most valuable human qualities.

"If we want a more enjoyable world, we must produce it," Dr. Ralph Deger, Dayton, Ohio, told the 33rd annual clinical assembly of the American Osteopathic College of Proctology.

"Everything tends, however, in the opposite direction, to make us sober if not solemn and we see only that which is straight ahead, one thing at a time.

"This fixes our minds and demands a rigid black and white. Gaiety, on the other hand, forces us to see two things at once, black and white, not together as gray, and yet mingled and mixed. Laughter destroys our mixed feelings, upsets our stereotypes of thought and feelings."

"Think, slow down, enjoy living, see the good about others, for to be happy is to be healthy," he said. "Since habit means so much, let's give more consideration to our everyday habits."

And one good habit, he emphasized, is to start the day with a good breakfast.

Dr. Deger was elected president of the organization at today's meeting. He succeeds Dr. John A. Brandon of Lorain, Ohio. Dr. Lester J. Vick, Amarillo, Tex., was named president-elect, to take office at the 1960 convention in Tulsa.

Dr. Joseph Lefler, Painesville, Ohio, was elected vice president, and Dr. Eugene W. Egle, Clayton, Mo., was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Hotel Blast Takes
One Life, Hurts Two

MONTREAL (AP) — A man carrying 20 sticks of dynamite in an overnight bag registered at the downtown Queen's Hotel Wednesday night. Less than two hours later a blast shook the building, taking his life and injuring two persons.

Detectives said it was suicide and that the man was Guy Charbonneau, about 40, from the farming community of St. Lin, Que., 35 miles north of Montreal.

Police had no immediate clues to his motive, and no note was found.

His fourth floor room and one adjoining were demolished. But there was no damage to a room three doors away in which a U.S. space expert, Dr. John P. Hagen, was registered. Dr. Hagen, chief of the U.S. Vanguard satellite project, was addressing a chemical meeting on the hotel's main floor at the time.

The blast punched a four-foot hole through the ceiling of the room below Charbonneau's, slightly cutting its two occupants.

In some parts of Alaska rainfall is very light. But, on the southeast coast, Alaskans joke that they measure rain not by feet, but fathoms.

tional, the speaker, was introduced by Joe Forsee. Ostergard stated that the breakfast clubs are growing the fastest of all clubs because it is often possible for men to attend meetings in the morning before they go to work when they cannot find time to get away at any other time of day.

Optimism is the best product in the world to sell, Ostergard said, and nobody can sell it like a good Optimist who believes in his organization and what it stands for.

The service club idea, of which an Optimist club is a direct descendant, is as old as the culture of ancient Greece, he said. Ever since the time of Homer, who brought tales of the Trojan war to community leaders of ancient Hellas, man has been solving his community problems on a well-lined stomach and with congenial companions.

An Optimist club is an active vehicle for building, through fellowship, friendship and harmonious cooperation, constructive civic achievement, Ostergard said. Each club is made up of selected individuals with a desire to share in the responsibilities and benefits of community progress.

Ostergard praised the community project in which members of the Optimist Club, along with other service clubs, participated.

"It is the first time I have ever heard of such a thing," he commented, and added, "You should be mighty proud of it."

The idea of the dogwood tree planting was that of an Optimist member, Judge Frank Armstrong. The meeting was conducted by Gerald Cecil, president.

Invocation was given by the Rev. James Schrader. Charles Hanna led the singing, with Miss Lillian Fox at the piano.

Clifford A. Nevins was installed by Charles Hanna as a new member.

John Herbst told of the new Explorer Post which has been organized and sponsored by the Optimist Club for boys in this community and which now has 12 members. In a recent election of officers, Kit Taylor was elected president.

Dick Wittig then told of some of the plans for the new Explorer Scout Post, which include a trip to the Whiteman Air Force Base, camping, archery, a glamour panel where college girls will answer questions that bother boys on how to act, such as what to do if the girl's father comes to the door when he calls. There will be speakers on trades and professions, and many other interesting things.

An announcement was made that Babe Ruth tryouts will be held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday at Liberty Park.

Frank Mehl gave the list of squadrons at Whiteman Air Force Base for adoption by service clubs and was instructed to have his committee select one on the list for the Optimist Club.

Vote On Ambassador
To Brazil Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has delayed until next week a vote on whether to recommend approval of Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce as ambassador to Brazil.

Delay on the vote which had been expected Wednesday was ordered so committee members not present could read a record of the hearing. The committee may meet again Tuesday.

Mrs. Luce was questioned Wednesday about a political attack she made on the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt. She said her language was "very intemperate" when she charged in a 1944 speech that Roosevelt "lied us into war," but said she still thinks Roosevelt should have told the nation it was "marching toward war" with the Nazis.

MASW To Meet At Camdenton

"The Best Is Yet to Come" will be the theme of a meeting of the West Central Division, MASW, to be held at the Harwood Hotel, Camdenton, on Thursday, April 23, beginning with dinner at 6:30, according to the Rev. Robert Herrmann, division chairman.

Dr. Oreen Ruedi, Springfield, professor of sociology at Southwest Missouri State College, will be the guest speaker. Dr. Ruedi serves as the chairman of a statewide committee of MASW, which is concerned with the problems of the aging and the aged, and she has been recognized nationally for her interest, knowledge, and activity in this field.

"Missouri is becoming more popular every day as a retirement state," said Herrmann, in announcing the meeting. "At the present time we rank third among the states in population age 65 years and over. We so often hear the remark that 'the golden years should be the ones of golden opportunity'."

"What are we doing, nationally, state, and locally, to assure our senior citizens of their place in our community life? What are we doing to assure them of proper housing, recreation programs, medical care, employment opportunities, and yes, even for participation in the every day community affairs?" he concluded.

Mrs. Beatrice Cummins, county welfare director of Camden County, is in charge of making the local arrangements for the meeting, and for receiving reservations. The meeting is open to the public, and reservations may be made by mail to her at the County Welfare Office, Camdenton, or by calling her at Camdenton, DI 6-2249.

MASW—Missouri Association for Social Welfare — is a statewide membership organization, whose members, from all sections of the state and from all walks of life, are dedicated to the improvement of health and welfare conditions for all Missourians. The program, concerned with problems of the aged, of children, of the mentally ill, of minority groups, public assistance, and other related fields, is carried out at the local level through ten geographical divisions of the state. Counties comprising the West Central Division are Bates, Benton, Camden, Cass, Cole, Cooper, Henry, Hickory, Johnson, Lafayette, Moniteau, Morgan, Pettis and Saline.

Herrmann, who is pastor of the Central Evangelical and Reformed Church, Jefferson City, heads up the division.

Green Ridge Garden
Club Holds Meet

Mrs. G. D. Rayburn assisted by Mrs. R. A. Stark was hostess to the members of the Green Ridge Garden Club Tuesday afternoon, April 7, at her home in Green Ridge.

Mrs. Rayburn served a dessert course at 1:30 to 18 members. She was assisted in serving by Mrs. J. A. Gordon, Mrs. Glen Heck and Mrs. L. B. Beach. Favors were artificial daisies to be worn in the hair.

The president, Mrs. E. H. Boltz called the meeting to order. Roll call was answered by "Something I Did in My Yard That I Would Change."

Mrs. Nelle Ream gave a very interesting program on "A Green Lawn All Summer."

Mrs. Mattie Myers presented her schedule for the spring flower show which will be held at the Green Ridge agriculture building on May 19, the last day of school. The theme of the Flower Show is "Highway 65."

Mrs. W. L. Whittall thanked the club for the rose plant, "Sutter's Gold," that was given to her while she was a patient in the hospital at Excelsior Springs.

Mrs. Boltz appointed Mrs. G. D. Rayburn to contact judges for the show.

Mrs. Boltz distributed flower seeds to be grown for specimens to be exhibited at the Missouri State Fair.

Flower seeds were brought to be distributed to 4-H children. The members also brought plants to exchange with each other.

The committee for the spring flower show will meet at the home of Mrs. G. D. Rayburn on Monday afternoon, April 13, to make plans for the show.

Mrs. J. M. Palmer, Mrs. Mattie Myers and Mrs. W. L. Whittall judged the specimens and specials which were arrangements in the shades of yellow.

Mrs. James Bell, assisted by Mrs. Gertrude Helman, will be hostess at the May meeting. Mrs. Perry Reed of LaMonte will be the guest speaker.

Losing Bleak Look

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AP)—Los Angeles is beginning to lose that bleak and sterile look.

So says Frederic A. Chase, executive director of Los Angeles Beautiful. He pointed out that the 10,500 permits to plant trees on downtown streets last year represented a 90 per cent increase over 1955.

Hal Boyle's Column

Now They're Talking About
Year-long Worker's Holiday

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Would you like a year in which every day seemed like Saturday?

Would you like a 365-day paid vacation from work?

The idea of a year off from your job to rest or study has been seriously advanced by Arthur Carstens, a University of California labor expert.

Carstens believes such year-long holidays, to be financed jointly by employers and the state, would benefit workers. They would, he said, "cut down the toll of pressure that makes widows of half of the nation's women."

He doesn't take into consideration the other half of the picture: If wives had their husbands underfoot for a 12-month stretch, half the men would wind up widowers. But progress always has its price, and this is a risk most thoughtful men would be willing to take.

As we see it, Carstens' proposal for a sabbatical year is of value only if the year away from office and factory were wisely spent.

Some showoffs, naturally, would try to impress the boss by enrolling for the year at Harvard, which only would mix them up. It takes four years of Harvard to remove the confusion from a man. Even then the diploma carries no guarantee.

What really is needed is a soundly planned program which will enable the individual, at the end of his year of enforced leisure, to return to the job a happier, more-rounded man.

We have drawn up such a daily program for ourselves — in the unlikely event our boss gives us a year off—and suggest you might find it useful too.

Here is our day:

7:00—Wake up and laugh at silent alarm clock, which has been turned off the night before.

7:00-7:01 — Brisk calisthenics while lying in bed.

7:01-9:00—Go back to sleep.

9:00-9:30—Debate whether to shave. Decide not to.

9:30-10 — Read newspaper and breakfast—bourbon, toast, bacon, eggs, coffee.

10-11—Give wife orders of the day, and point out her errors of the day before.

11-11:15 — Coffee and bourbon break, spent resting on sofa.

11:15-12:15 — Front porch rocking chair session. Make plans on how to spend tomorrow in constructive way.

12:15-12:30 — Highball with next door neighbor.

More Than 50 Attend

Parent-Teacher Units Hold
All-Day Instruction Period

More than 50 people, representing the eight PTA units that from the Sedalia Council of Parents and Teachers, attended an all day school of instructions Wednesday, April 8.

Mrs. Ralph Rohrbach, Council president, presided throughout the day, and Mrs. Murrell Elsen, district president, gave an inspirational talk on "The Role of the PTA."

The principal speaker was Mrs. Norman Moore, second vice-president of the Missouri Congress of Parents and Teachers, who talked on the subject, "An All Over Picture of the PTA." Mrs. Moore stated the work of the National Congress is carried on through its 40,376 local units and 50 state branches which include the District of Columbia and Hawaii.

There are also Congress PTA's in Alaska, Puerto Rico and the Island of Guam. In addition, there are Congress units in American military bases in 13 foreign countries.

Mrs. Moore reviewed the policies of the PTA, using as her guide the PTA manual. The program of the association is non-commercial, non-sectarian and non-partisan. It should not seek to direct administration of the school or control policies.

After a brief recess period, Mrs. Howard Gwinn served as moderator for a panel group which discussed "Building the PTA." Mrs. George Chamberlin spoke on the PTA program and what purpose it serves; P. A. Sillers, elementary school supervisor told of the needs of the community. He presented figures showing the increase in the number of students in the Sedalia elementary school since 1948. During this period, there has been an increase of 778 students in the Sedalia schools and approximately 85 per cent of these students are enrolled in the schools west of Ohio street. Sillers gave the actual number of students in each classroom of each school. Mrs. Nathalia Poynter told how these needs can be converted into interesting action programs. She gave a number of sources of information that are available in preparing the programs.

Following the lunch period, Mrs. T. E. Owen led the group singing in a song service. Mrs. Jack Hernandez was the accompanist.

Mrs. Moore spoke on "Leadership and Participation," urging all to strive to get more members to be active participants rather than just members.

The meeting was then organized into six discussion groups. The purpose of these was for specific instructions to officers and chairmen. The leaders were: Mrs. Norman Moore, Mrs. Murrell Elsen, Mrs. George Espelin, Mrs. Theodore Wells, Mrs. Floyd Knox, Mrs. Oliver Thomas, Mrs. Myron Lindquist, Mrs. J. O. Dotson and Mrs. Aubrey L. Moore. Highlights of the discussion in these classes were given by reporters from each group.

Mrs. Elsen summarized the day's program. She stated the best way to get new members is to give them a job.

"The purpose of the PTA is educational and we must work together in all ways," she said.

The closing meditation was a vocal solo, "The Lord's Prayer," sung by Carl Dedman, music instructor at Hubbard School. He was accompanied by Mrs. Floria Shepard, first grade teacher.

Sets Speed Record

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—A McDonnell RF101 Voodoo, the world's fastest photo reconnaissance aircraft, streaked to its fifth speed record Wednesday.

Piloted by Air Force Capt. George A. Edwards Jr., the plane roared over a triangular 500-kilometer course at 816.279 m.p.h. The world record was announced by the Tactical Air Command at the World Congress of Flight.

The previous record was 695.127 m.p.h. over a similar course in July 1955 by a Navy A4D1 fighter.

Edwards, from Crossville, Tenn., and stationed at Shaw Air Force Base, S.C., flew over a course beginning and ending on the Mojave Desert.

Blackwater
PTA In Final
Meet of Year

The Blackwater 100 PTA held the last meeting of the school term at the schoolhouse Friday evening. The session was called to order by the president, L. C. Griffith. Mrs. Nathan Wright gave the devotional, which was followed by prayer. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. I. D. Sidwell, Jr., and approved as read. Mrs. Dick Thomas, treasurer, reported a balance of $293.49 on hand.

Mrs. Edgar Werneke, chairman of the project committee, reported that the committee recommended the buying of several items of small playground equipment, a flag on a stand for the school auditorium, and games for indoor play on days when the weather is bad. These recommendations were agreed to by the organization.

The group voted to allow two dollars for a Founders' Day gift and three dollars for the Student Loan Fund.

The auditing committee, Mrs. Grover Meeker, Mrs. Orley Kurtz and Robert Jenkins, reported that the treasurer's books had been checked and found in good order. After Mr. Griffith read "The Beatitudes of a Good Leader" the following officers for the ensuing year were installed by W. W. Marshall: Mrs. Homer Walker, president; Mrs. Edgar Werneke, vice-president; Mrs. I. D. Sidwell, Jr., secretary; Mrs. Dick Thomas, treasurer, and Miss Lillie Schanz, reporter.

Mrs. Walker then announced the following committees: program, L. C. Griffith, Robert Jenkins, Miss Lil Schanz and Mrs. Pat Herndon; devotional, Mrs. William Clark; social, Dick Thomas; Mrs. L. C. Griffith and Mrs. Rogers Clark; magazine, Mrs. Walter Shanz; enlistment, Claude Siefkas and Mrs. Orley Kurtz; songs and games, Mrs. Nathan Wright; health and safety, Rogers Clark and Orley Kurtz; county council, Mrs. Edgar Werneke and L. C. Griffith; budget and finance, Mrs. Dick Thomas and Mrs. W. W. Marshall.

Joe Vogliardo, assistant county extension agent, was then introduced and showed two entertaining and educational films on health and safety, after which refreshments were served.

Court Reverses
Its Ruling On Neglected Child

WEST PLAINS, Mo. (AP) — The Springfield Court of Appeals has reversed a circuit court ruling that Lily Taylor was a neglected child because her parents wouldn't send her to school.

Lily, 9, is a stepdaughter of N. I. Pilkinton, who refused to send her to classes because the school bus didn't stop close enough to his farm home.

The original action against Pilkinton was filed by Dick Moore, Howell County prosecutor. Circuit Judge Joe Crain of Ozark ruled that the child was neglected. He said she would become a ward of the court if she wasn't sent to school.

The appellate court said the circuit court suit wasn't legal because it was filed by the prosecutor. None of the five counties in the 20th Judicial Circuit — Howell, Dent, Oregon, Shannon and Carter — has a juvenile officer.

Howell officials said none of the counties could proceed in juvenile cases if the reversal stands. The appellate court's decision becomes final in two weeks.

Circuit Judge Gordon Dorris of Alton offered to appoint a juvenile officer but no provision has been made for paying the officer's salary, as the state's juvenile code tor instead of by a juvenile officer.

Three Men Killed
In Truck Explosion

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP)—A gasoline truck-trailer swerved to avoid a car on the busy Santa Ana Freeway Wednesday, burst through a divider fence, smashed into a car, overturned and exploded.

The toll: three men killed, one burned critically, five others injured.

Burned to death in their smashed car were Franklin O. Carlson, 25, Russell Fischer, 45, and Walter Fulmer, 40. Eugene Megill, 30, received burns over 97 per cent of his body.

The truckdriver, Donald Currell, leaped from the cab uninjured. Randolph Kinkelaar, 41, was booked on a misdemeanor manslaughter charge. Police said his car swerved in front of the truck-trailer which hit it and went out of control. Kinkelaar was unhurt.

4-H Group Meets

Striped College 4-H electricity meeting was held at the Dabner home, with a demonstration given on "Circuit Breaker" by Jerry Hilburn.

Smart Housewife Sets Stage For Leaving Hubby Alone

By VIVIAN BROWN

AP Newsfeatures Writer

A big crisis in a man's life occurs when his wife leaves him home alone for any length of time. As dishes pile up and vegetables mold in the ice box, many a man of the house feels mighty inadequate.

If Mom returns home healthy and happy, she may not go into shock when she views the shambles. But if she has just left a hospital bed or a rest home, the chances are she'll have a relapse at the mere thought of coping with the enormous task ahead.

One husband who had the experience recently, complicated the situation even more by deciding he should remodel the kitchen before his wife came home from the hospital with the new baby. In his enthusiasm to finish the room, the house was neglected.

Neighborhood help

Five neighbors helped clean up the week's mess. One said "The mound of laundry reminded me of a snow-capped mountain." Another said that "kitchen cabinets were in every room of the house, and the living room furniture was splattered with paint and plaster."

What kind of formula may be used to insure a normal household when Mom returns home?

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Fannie Knox Demand

Mrs. Fannie Knox Demand, Smithton, died at 8:05 p.m. Tuesday, April 21 at St. Luke's Hospital, Kansas City, after an illness of eight weeks.

Mrs. Demand was born in Smithton Jan. 7, 1885, daughter of the late C. W. and Mary Ringen Knox. She spent her entire life in the Smithton community and in 1919 was married to Harry Demand, a Pettis County farmer, who died Dec. 26, 1936.

Prior to her marriage, she was an elementary school teacher in Pettis, Cooper and Saline Counties. She united with the Smithton Methodist Church at an early age and was active in its work, having taught Sunday School classes for more than 20 years and holding a life membership in the W.S.C.S. She was interested in various civic affairs having been active in projects of both the Community Club and Home Economics Club.

She is survived by: Her daughter, Marian Demand, a special assistant in elementary vocal music in Kansas City schools; two brothers, E. R. Knox, Smithton, and L. V. Knox, Los Angeles, Calif.; two nephews, Cecil Knox, Independence, Kan., and Lloyd H. Knox, Sedalia, a great-niece, Karen Knox, Independence, Kan.; and a great-nephew, Lloyd Rickman Knox, Sedalia. She was preceded in death by two brothers, Harry C. and Homer F. Knox.

Funeral services will be held at the Neumeier Funeral Home at 2 p.m. Friday with the Rev. E. F. Dillon and Rev. Lloyd D. Wasson officiating.

Burial will be in the Smithton cemetery.

Chapel, retired Missouri Pacific engineer and a former Sedalian, who died unexpectedly Tuesday evening at Jefferson City after working all day in his yard, will be at 2 p.m. Friday. The Rev. Thomas W. Nelson will officiate at the Thorpe J. Gordon chapel, Jefferson City, with burial in Riverside Cemetery there.

Mr. Chapel had been retired since 1945. He had lived in Jefferson City since 1903.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church, Jefferson Lodge No. 43, A. F. and A. M., the Scottish Rite bodies, Valley of Kansas City, Orient of Missouri, and a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Veterans Club of the Missouri Pacific Railroad.

Youth Joins Vets in Winning In Amateur Golf

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP)—Jack Nicklaus, 19-year-old Walker Cup team whiz kid from Columbus, Ohio, and three veterans in the mid-40's won quarterfinals matches Thursday in the North and South Amateur Golf Tournament.

Nicklaus lost 2 of the last 4 holes but hung on for a 1-up victory over Don Essig of Indianapolis and Louisiana State University.

Bob Cochran, 46-year-old St. Louis paper company salesman, won the 15th and 16th holes with pars to advance at the expense of Mal Galletta of Old Westbury, N. Y., 2 and 1.

Gene Andrews, 45, insurance man and amateur magician from Pacific Palisades, Calif., birdied the 13th and 14th holes and went on to a 3 and 2 victory over John Guenther of Reading, Pa.

Jack Penrose, 44, another insurance man, from Miami, Fla., took the 15th and 16th holes to oust Bill Campbell, still another insurance man, from Huntington, W. Va., 3 and 2.

Semifinals Friday match Nicklaus against Cochran and Andrews against Penrose. The 36-hole finals will be played Saturday.

Wagon Train Nears Kansas Capital City

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP)—The Oregon Centennial wagon train headed for Topeka today after a stopover just west of Lawrence and a wonderful reception last night.

The seven wagon train, four days out of Independence, Mo., and enroute to Independence, Ore., attracted thousands of spectators in a parade over Massachusetts Street in Lawrence late yesterday.

Tex Serpa, the wagon master, was presented a huge cake decorated with four candles, commemorating the fourth day of the 2,000-mile journey.

Students from Haskell Indian Institute performed native dances along the parade route to enliven the festivities.

Officials On Alert to Nab Hired Killers

Warned About Plot By Killer Groups To Slay Castro

NEW YORK (AP)—New York police, the FBI and other agencies were alerted Thursday to what was termed a plot by hired killers to assassinate Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

Castro has been in New York since Tuesday and is due to go to Boston Saturday. Hundreds of officers have been guarding him, and more were quickly assigned to the task.

Police said Castro aides had notified them of the alleged plot early today and said it involved two groups totaling seven men, none of them Cubans.

One of these groups was described as five brothers, between 28 and 35 years old, originally from Philadelphia but now Chicago residents. The other was said to consist of two men, also brothers.

The five brothers in the former group, it was said, all have police records in Philadelphia for minor offenses such as disorderly conduct and assault. It was reported that they might be riding in a 1957 black Chevrolet with a white top and bearing Florida license plates.

The second party of two brothers was said to be traveling in a dirty gray Cadillac with Michigan plates. One of them reportedly is called "Doc."

An alert sent to all police commands in the city stated in essence that the two groups had been paid to assassinate the Cuban revolutionary leader. It also was said that the two sets of brothers have no direct association but that the plot probably stemmed from the same source.

A police official said it was not known where any of the alleged would-be assassins are supposed to be, but the report was that they would seize the first opportunity to try to kill Castro.

Port of New York Authority officers were notified to watch for one or both cars approaching the city by way of the Port Authority's bridges and tunnels.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Ellen Fidler, 75, widow of the late Robert E. Fidler, who died at Bothwell Hospital Tuesday morning, were held at the Ewing Funeral Home at 1 p.m. Thursday. The Rev. Elbert L. Cornelius, Kansas City, officiated.

Mrs. Richard Mills and Mrs. J. E. Whitfield sang, "The Last Mile of the Way" and "Sometime We'll Understand" accompanied by Mrs. D. E. Edwards at the organ.

Palbearers were Murray Waisner, Sherman Howard, James Fidler, Bob Howard, Clarence Davis and Alfred Mettenberg.

Burial will be in the Climax Springs Cemetery.

Truman's 75th Birthday Speech Recorded for TV

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP)—The Harry S. Truman library had a Hollywood air about it Thursday. Television cameras and technicians and enough people for a good mob scene were there as advance TV recordings were made of the former president to be used in a national closed-circuit program in connection with Mr. Truman's 75th birthday anniversary May 8.

Among the scenes was a brief talk by the former president; several songs by a group of 1,200 Topeka, Kan., school children who were visiting the library and comments from Miss Mary Jane Truman, Mr. Truman's sister who related the early life of her brother; Ted Marks, who was best man at the Truman wedding; Msgr. Curtis Tiernan, chaplain in Truman's Army unit in World War I, and Tom Evans, a long-time friend.

The birthday program will be held in New York, and today's program will be shown there as well as at various fund-raising dinners for the Democratic party over the nation.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman will leave Saturday morning by train for New York. His schedule in the east includes a series of lectures at Columbia University, April 27-28-29, and a trip to Washington to receive a citation for launching the Point Four program.

Part of the eastern trip will be a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Clifton Daniel, her husband, and grandson, Clifton Truman Daniel, who live in New York.

Senate Approval On "Hot Cargo" Clause in Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Thursday night approved a ban on "hot cargo" clauses in labor agreements with employers.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) said the move would restrict the powerful Teamsters Union.

The action came on a voice vote just before the Senate wound up an 11-hour session on the Kennedy bill aimed at curbing corruption in labor unions.

Sen. Albert Core (D-Tenn.) sponsor of the "hot cargo" ban, said his proposal would make an unfair labor practice of any agreement to secure the payment of every common carrier to withhold shipments from another employer.

It would be limited to railroads, truckers and other interstate carriers.

Kennedy endorsed the amendment, saying it would "outlaw hot cargo agreements, a means by which the Teamsters Union had extended its power."

Fires In City

The fire companies at 7:01 p.m. Thursday were called to 617 West Seventh where sparks from a trash fire set fire to a barn. Slight damage resulted.

Accidents

A two car accident occurred at the intersection of Main and Washington at 2:09 p.m. Thursday. There were no injuries.

Involved was a 1958 Chrysler driven east on Main by B. Bruce Robb, Kansas City, Kan., and a 1958 Chevrolet driven east on Main by Gerald M. Nicholson, LaMonte.

The back bumper and tail light of the Chrysler were damaged, and the front end of the Chevrolet was damaged.

Police Reports

Harold Kasten of Minnesota, was picked up for investigation at Third and Vermont at 3 p.m. Thursday. He was taken to the station and questioned. He was given an escort out of town and requested not to return.

Mrs. Lucille Ray, 1700 East 18th, reported at 4:23 p.m. Thursday that a boy, LeRoy Burns, who is in her charge, was missing. He left Whittier School at noon Thursday. According to Mrs. Ray, LeRoy's mother is in Ionia, Mo., and she said she did not think the boy would go there. However, at 6:10 p.m. the police department received another report that the boy was with his mother.

A horse was reported running loose at 5:15 p.m. Thursday on 16th street just west of Limit. The horse, it was reported, caused a minor accident at 20th and Limit. Both drivers left the scene before an investigation could be made.

The horse, after a brief chase, was caught by the owner.

Space Ship May Not Encounter Meteor

LONDON (AP)—Soviet scientists say an interplanetary space ship may fly for years without encountering a meteoric particle bigger than a grain of sand.

The government newspaper Izvestia, quoted by Moscow radio, said the scientists concluded this from reports radiated to earth by Sputnik III.

They computed that a space ship with a total surface area of 100 square meters might encounter a meteorite weighing one gram — three hundredths of an ounce — once in 14,000 flying hours.

Woman's Energy May Soon Give Them Equality

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—A Soviet woman touring the United States says American women's energy and vigor soon will give them equality with men. Soviet women, she says, already have achieved it.

Mrs. Olga Khvalebnova, vice president of the Soviet Union's Society of Dissemination of Scientific Knowledge, said Wednesday she was impressed with what she called "the sincerity of thought, strength and business heads" of U.S. women.

Mrs. Khvalebnova is ending a monthlong tour of seven American cities with Mrs. Nina Orlova, a Soviet lawyer.

The tour was arranged by the National Council of Women, in cooperation with the U.S. Department of State.

The purpose: to establish friendly contacts with American women.

"We feel the tour has been very worthwhile," she said through an interpreter.

The women said they had been impressed with labor-saving devices available to women in America. They said that under the current Soviet seven-year economic plan, mass production of similar machines soon would make them everyday items to Soviet house-holders, too.

Mrs. Khvalebnova, an engineer-economist, devoted much of her discussion to the effects of the Soviet women had found a place of equal stature with men.

Estimated 25,000 See "A's" Defeat Ft. Leonard Wood

FT. LEONARD WOOD, Mo. (AP)—The Kansas City Athletics, with Preston Ward and Frank House driving in three runs each, blasted Ft. Leonard Wood 14-2 Thursday in an exhibition game watched by an overflow crowd estimated at 25,000.

Ward smacked a three-run double and Roger Maris a long two-run homer to right in a big six-run third inning for the A's. House smashed a two-run homer for the A's in the seventh.

Catcher Roy West's two-run homer in the seventh off Mark Freeman accounted for all of the soldiers' runs.

John Titoshits pitched the first four innings for the A's and Freeman the last five. Arnold Briggs was the Ft. Wood loser.

The game was played at Hilltoppers Stadium, which seats about 10,000. The other spectators gathered in the outfield and in trees and buildings.

Godfrey Is Worried About Operation

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (AP)—Arthur Godfrey says he's a bit worried about his operation this weekend to remove a tumor from his left chest, but he expects to be around for a long time.

"Even if this tumor is malignant," he said Wednesday night, "I think I've caught it in time. I know people who have lived a long time with only one lung."

The 55-year-old radio-television personality discussed the operation with reporters after receiving a special award from the Izaak Walton League of America for "outstanding contributions to the vast field of conservation." The award specifically cited conservation practices on his 1,500-acre farm at Paconian Springs, Va.

Godfrey, who flew here from Virginia in his own plane to receive the award at the league's convention, said he hopes to be in the hospital less than two months.

Claims Husband Kidnaped Her

CASTAIC, Calif. (AP)—A bedraggled seamstress staggered into this ranch community and told authorities her estranged husband had held her prisoner 10 days. She said he beat and threatened to kill her.

"I was in fear of my life every minute," Mrs. Kathrine Roden, 38, told deputies. Her account:

Her husband Raymond, 44, forced her at gunpoint into his car, drove into nearby foothills and pitched camp. She escaped Wednesday and walked seven miles for help. She said her husband abducted her once before for 10 days. They have been separated seven months.

Roden, found sleeping in a tent, was booked on suspicion of kidnapping and assault with a deadly weapon. The husband, an unemployed tool and die maker, claimed his wife accompanied him voluntarily.

Lesson in Law

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—An underprivileged junior citizen got a discouraging lesson in law from Sgt. William W. Saylor at the State Police post here.

It's nice outside and my mother won't let me go out and play," the young caller told the sergeant. "Is it legal? Can she do it?"

Old Manuscript May Be O. Henry Story

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A handwriting expert says a yellowed 47-page manuscript found at a junk shop is a short story written by O. Henry 50 years ago.

E. E. Davenport said Wednesday he compared the manuscript, written in pencil on unlined paper, with facsimiles of O. Henry's handwriting provided by a research library.

The manuscript was found in an old leather trunk at the salvage store operated by the Roman Catholic St. Vincent DePaul Society.

H. E. Wilder, the store manager, said he had no idea where the trunk came from. He said the manuscript would be sold to the highest bidder.
